EXTRA CHARGE BY TAXIS DENOUNCED

The imposition by the taxicab companies in Boston of a charge of 10 cents a trip to their patrons to cover the compulsory liability insurance law was today characterized as a "most glaring abuse of the public trust" by the Commission on the Necessaries of Life in its report.

RAILROAD BUYING IS REVIVED

Bullish speculation on a large scale reappeared today in the southwestern rails in New York Stock Exchange trading. New Haven sold at 57 7-8 in New York, a new high for years. General Motors weakened, off 3 at 155. Trading was quiet during the final period.

—By Arthur Brisbane

Copyright, 1927 by Star Co.

BOLSHEVISM uses radio to tell peasants about old Czars, describing Peter the Great as drunken, cruel, bestial, decapitating prisoners for the fun of it, and often burying men alive.

All true and more. He asked the King of Denmark to let him see his instruments of torture at work. "Please put somebody in and work them," said he.

AND PETER was a model of propriety, compared with his predecessor, Ivan the Terrible, who fondled babies, made sure they had been baptized, then threw them out of windows, soldiers below catching them on spears. He drove his lance through the foot of a messenger that brought him disagreeable news; executed tens of thousands and inflicted upon women such horrible cruelties as could not even be mentioned.

ALL THAT does not mean much. The worst things that Ivan the Terrible did were not much worse than things done by that good Christian, King Louis the Eleventh of France. And he, strangely, was the most useful King France ever had, establishing unity of weights, measures and money, creating the French Nation beating down the great nobles.

AIMEE IS FRIGHTENED AWAY; NOT TO VISIT HUB

Aimee Semple McPherson, evangelist and "heroine" of a kidnaping, has been frightened away from Boston.

Over the long-distance telephone today she said in Washington that she would not come to the Hub.

Her statement, started by herself and finished by her representative, came during a movement of Boston clergymen against her, practically all pastors closing their pulpits to her.

Although in previous interviews she had commented on her expected denied in the telephone conversation denied i nthe telephone conversation that her itinerary, at least on this trip, had ever included this city.

As given to the Boston Evening American by the representative, Mrs. McPherson's itinerary now brings her only to Syracuse, N. Y., as the nearest point to Boston to the West, and to New York City on the south.

The representative, Ralph Jordan, denied also that Leo Rogers or any other person, was authorized to represent Aimee in the Hub or to ar-

OIL BLAST FIRE SWEEPS EAST BRAINTREE PLANT

Starting with a "flare-up" explosion, fire that caused damage estimated at $25,000 destroyed a still containing 600 barrels of crude oil today at the plant of the Cities Service Refining Company, Quincy avenue, East Braintree, and for an hour threatened to ignite thousands of gallons of gasoline.

Heavy black smoke rose from the blazing oil and settled like a pall over parts of Braintree, Quincy and surrounding communities.

Wading in crude oil, firemen and employes of the plant fought the flames with foamite and saved not only the nearby gasoline storage tanks but also a row of eight stills lined on each side of the wrecked one. Brick fire walls aided in preventing a spread.

A broken pumping-out line caused the flareup with which the fire started, the oil dripping on to the fire beneath the still. The loss was chiefly in the expensive and compli-

BLIND BANKER DIES BEHIND PRISON WALLS

Atlanta, Ga., Feb. 16 (A.P.)—G. Harold Gilpatric, former State Treasurer of Connecticut, died at the Atlanta Federal penitentiary today. He was serving a sentence of fifteen years for violation of the national banking act.

Prison officials said Gilpatric suffered a brain hemorrhage last night and died early this morning. He was from Putnam, Ct., and his brother was notified of his illness and death.

Gilpatric began service of his sentence on October 24, 1924.

Sentenced at New Haven, Ct. early in 1924 to 15 years for a violation of the national banking laws, Gilpatric

ITALY TO REJECT U. S. ARMS CUT PROPOSAL

Rome, Feb. 16 (A.P.)—Italy will follow France's lead in rejecting President Coolidge's naval disarmament proposal it was announced in a semi-official communique today. The Italian reply probably will be delivered today.

The reasons for Italy's rejection of the proposal, it is understood, are based upon the insistence that a reduction in submarines, destroyers and other light types of naval vessels would jeopardize the defense of the long coast lines of Italy proper and her African colonies.

'VENGEANCE' SLAYER EAGER FOR NEW TRIAL TO RETELL HIS STORY

By BERT FORD
(Boston Evening American Staff Correspondent.)

Portland, Me., Feb. 16.—Finishing at noon the fifth day of his hunger strike, 120 hours, Benjamin H. Turner, sentenced to life imprisonment for slaying James D. Hallen, today revealed that he is eager to tell his story over again to another jury.

This attitude indicated, in the opinion of officials of the Cumberland County jail, where he is lodged, that he will end his hunger strike at least while action on an appeal is pending.

But aside from disclosing his desire to re-tell his dramatic story, Turner himself gave no sign of ending his long fast. His counsel were to visit him late today to urge him to eat and to authorize their appeal to the law court in his behalf.

Turner is obsessed with the notion that he overlooked important details in his recital to the jury of men and women who found him guilty.

Before the trial he had an idea that all he had to do was to tell his story to be acquitted, and this notion handicapped his attorneys who could not induce him to take the proper attitude on the witness stand.

Meanwhile, Mrs. Constance Kilbourne, who twice befriended Turner, made a statement in which she charged that Hallen engineered a plot to harm her when she was on her way from Mexico City to Portland with a draft of $65,000, which

GEN. EDWARDS HITS AT 'NATION OF HYPOCRITES'

"We are becoming a great nation of hypocrites and I am scared to death about our youth."

General Clarence R. Edwards made this statement today in the Gardner Auditorium before the legislative committee on legal affairs while urging the committee to report favorably on the petition of the Liberal Civic Alliance for a referendum on the liquor question.

The least a great State can do for its veterans, he declared, is to give the thousands, who were absent in France, the opportunity to vote on prohibition.

More than 100,000 signatures—133,000 to be exact—from both wets and drys, asking for a referendum in the 1928 election were presented to the committee by Attorney Conrad W. Crooker of the Alliance.

Ready to oppose the petitioners, churchmen, Anti-Saloon League representatives, and members of social societies were out in force.

In his opening remarks, Crooker

'CAPTIVE' TO END RUN AS RESULT OF RAIDS

New York, Feb. 16 (A.P.)—Shortly before time for the curtain to rise on a "courtroom matinee" of "The Captive," one of three plays raided in last week's stage cleanup campaign, producers of the production announced they had decided it would be "unwise and unpolitic" to continue the run of the play.

The casts of "Sex" and "The Virgin Man" are already held under bail for hearing in Special Sessions and yesterday Magistrate Renaud ruled that the 12 members of "The Captive" cast must appear for arraignment today despite the fact that this would interfere with a scheduled matinee.

The managing director for the Charles Frohman Company, producers of "The Captive," thereupon issued a statement announcing cessation of production.

He based the decision on "strong criticism in some quarters," but reiterated his belief that the play was a fine production, worthy of the best traditions of the stage, and asserted that the authorities had been "grossly unfair to class 'The Captive' with plays of less distinguished character."

He denied reports that the Frohman concern was negotiating with any other producer to take over the play.

"Sex" and "The Virgin Man" are continuing production while the courts consider their cases.

Miller said that at today's court "matinee" Magistrate Renaud would be requested to drop the complaint against the members of "The Captive" cast in return for voluntary withdrawal of the play after tonight's performance.

range for any church or hall in which she might speak.

Bolger conferred with Manager Niles of Ford Hall, according to Niles, with a view toward obtaining that auditorium for Aimee's meetings. Use of the forum was denied Bolger.

In her statement over the telephone Mrs. McPherson said:

"My itinerary was completed several weeks ago and Boston was not on it. I have no intention of going to Boston on this trip, which is a vacation trip.

COULD NOT COME

"I have only eight weeks to be away from Los Angeles and every day of that eight weeks is taken. I could not go to Boston if I wanted to.

"My itinerary will take me out of Washington on the midnight train Thursday and I will be in New York city Friday, Saturday and Sunday; in Syracuse on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, and in Rochester on Friday, Saturday and Sunday. From there I go to Jacksonville, Fla."

Curiously enough, at the same time that Mrs. McPherson was talking from Washington, Mrs. Laura Bolger, wife of Leo Bolger, was giving this statement to a Boston Evening American reporter at the home of Mrs. Bolger's relatives in Etna street, Brookline:

"Mrs. McPherson is determined to come to Boston and speak, even if she has to pay her own expenses, in order to secure complete vindication.

PAY OWN EXPENSES

"It is not a money-making proposition with her at all. There is no fee charged at the meetings. A contribution is taken merely to defray expenses.

"She cannot afford to lecture or speak to small audiences. They must be large. In view of that she has sought the bigger churches or temples.

"Mrs. McPherson would consider it nicer were she to be invited by some civic body, but failing in that she is ready to defray her own expenses in order to attain her objective.

"She has not given up hope of appearing here, although plans are very indefinite because of the adverse action taken by the leading clergymen. It is almost certain however, that she will speak here."

ONE CHANCE

Just one opportunity for Aimee to preach in Boston with official sanction of a clergyman and a church body had presented itself up to the time of her denial that she intended coming here.

And she had had a further setback when none of the three major Hub radio stations would consent to have her broadcast through their microphones, no matter what her message might be.

This ban followed the cancelling of the evangelist's broadcast date by station WRNY of New York, which she was to fill on her arrival in Gotham from Washington and midway points.

The possible opening for Aimee was made by the Rev. Dr. Arthur T. Brooks, pastor of the Dudley Street Baptist Church, while other pastors were assigning various reasons for not allowing her the use of their pulpits—prejudice against her type of service, fear of sensationalism, lack of jurisdiction in churches governed by trustees, and other reasons.

But the Rev. Brooks said that she could speak from his pulpit—if she could prove to him that the sensational charges against her in Los Angeles, and incidentally of which she was acquitted, are without foundation in fact.

AN OPEN MIND

"I have an open mind," said the pastor, in making his offer. "If I were convinced that she is all right and that the charges are untrue, I would throw open my pulpit to her.

"I believe everybody ought to have a fair and square deal. There have been so many charges against her derogatory to real Christianity that she would have to prove to me that they are wrong."

Aimee's denial was also immediately on the heels of dispatches from Washington, in direct variation to her declaration and asserting that Aimee had said she would come to Boston, regardless of apparent inability to secure a church.

The "most discussed woman in America" gave out her dictum, according to dispatches, as soon as word had been brought to her of the interdiction placed on her by the Boston clergy.

Hardly had she received the news from Boston when New York followed suit, and the evangelist was told that the radio company which had intended broadcasting her sermons had rescinded the contract and her addresses would not be put on the air when she reaches that city later this week.

MANY LARGE HALLS

"Boston ministers can not bar Mrs. McPherson from Boston," said her spokesman, "though, of course, they have the privilege of refusing their churches or tabernacles to her.

"But there are many large halls in Boston which will be thrown open to her. Mechanics building, I understand, will seat thousands, as will Symphony Hall or Horticultural Hall.

"Nowhere on our tour has any churchman or other official attempted to bar the evangelist from a city or town. This is a little too much."

Out of a clear sky came the Boston clerical thunderbolt against the woman. Those who placed the ban on the visiting evangelist included: Rev. J. C. Massee of Tremont Temple; Rev. A. Z. Conrad of Park Street Church; Suffragan Bishop Charles Slattery of the Episcopal diocese, and Bishop W. F. Anderson of the Methodist Church.

Others were the Rev. A. M. Rihbany, pastor of the Church of the Disciples, Peterboro street; Rev Samuel L. Elberfeld, pastor of the Unitarian Church of Our Father, East Boston; Rev. Lester D. Evans, pastor of the Central Congregational Church, Tonawanda street, Dorchester; Rev. Frederick Palladino, pastor of the Upham's Corner Methodist Church; Rev. S. H. Roblin, pastor of the Church of the Redeemer (Universalist), Boylston and Jersey streets, and the Rev. F. S. Fries, pastor of the Seventh Day Adventist Temple, Columbus avenue.

STILL A SHADOW

Also the sponsors of the Ford Hall Forum refused to permit Aimee to use their pulpit to give forth her radiant message.

Regardless of what Boston did there was no ban raised on the evangelist in Washington where the high and low of the city "stood up for Jesus" under the magic spell of the fiery preacher.

The evangelist went to give the National capital an opportunity to return to old-time religion and she got away to a flying start with two sermons.

Mrs. McPherson is a great "showman." She knows all the tricks that capture an audience and she uses them, every one, Washington reports.

Clad in a simple white linen dress, much like a nurse's uniform and exactly like the dresses of the choir members, she makes a dramatic entrance on the stage at a point when the people have been "tuned up" with the singing of old-fashioned hymns.

Over the white dress, a navy blue woolen cape falls to the bottom of her skirts. A corsage bouquet of orchids is her only ornament. A reading lamp is turned not on the pages of her Bible, but upon herself.

THEY SHAKE HANDS

Then she gets the people to shake hands with their neighbors. She makes them wave handkerchiefs. She leads them in song. And down in the orchestra pit there are saxophones and cornets.

New Jersey Radio to Broadcast Aimee Talk

New York, Feb. 16 (I.N.S.)—After five New York radio stations had refused to broadcast a series of religious addresses to be given by Mrs. Aime Semple McPherson, widely known Los Angeles evangelist, here beginning next Friday, it was announced this afternoon that Station WODA, at Paterson, N. J., had agreed to broadcast the service.

Hub Pastors Declare Stand on Aimee

For and against—but mainly against—allowing Aimee Semple McPherson, evangelist, the use of their pulpits in her expected, but now denied, trip to Boston, these Hub clergymen gave their reasons for their decisions today as follows:

REV. ARTHUR T. BROOKS, pastor, Dudley Street Baptist Church.—I have an open mind. If I were convinced that she is all right and that the charges are untrue, I would throw open my pulpit to her. I believe everybody ought to have a fair and square deal. There have been so many charges against her, derogatory to real Christianity, that she would have to prove to me that they are wrong.

REV. A. M. RIHBANY, pastor, Church of the Disciples, Peterboro street.—We do not shut out anyone from our pulpit who has any good message, or on account of any opinions that he or she may hold. But she will not be allowed to speak, because of the peculiar type of evangelistic service she conducts. We should take a charitable view of Mrs. McPherson's trials in Los Angeles, however, and should not hold an arbitrary or prejudiced opinion. They acquitted her.

SUFFRAGAN BISHOP CHARLES SLATTERY of the Episcopal Diocese.—Mrs. McPherson will not be allowed to use the pulpits of the Episcopal diocese. I do not care to offer any reason for this action. It is hardly necessary.

REV. SAMUEL L. ELBERFELD, pastor, Unitarian Church of Our Father, Back Bay.—In my church we have the congregational system of government, with a board of trustees of twelve men, who decide, with the pastor, upon such a question as allowing Mrs. McPherson the use of the pulpit. Ordinarily my pulpit is open to anyone, liberal or conservative, with a helpful thought.

REV. LESTER D. EVANS, pastor, Central Congregational Church, Tonawanda street, Dorchester.—I would refuse permission for her to speak from my pulpit. I don't agree with her tenets, and I think that a service conducted by Mrs. McPherson would border on the sensational, would arouse curiosity and would break up the atmosphere of worship. Although nothing was actually proven against her, I believe anyone in this pulpit should be above reproach.

REV. J. C. MASSEE, Tremont Temple—There is still a shadow hanging over Mrs. McPherson as a result of the recent sensational stories of her kidnaping and confinement in a lonely cottage, and I don't believe her appearance in Tremont Temple would benefit the true Christian spirit. Mind you, I am not sitting in judgment on Mrs. McPherson, but we could not invite her to speak here in the Temple and remain true to our high ideals.

REV. FREDERICK PALLADINO, pastor Upham's Corner Methodist Church—One of the things that the Christian church stands for is an opportunity for everybody to begin over again. I take no stock in Mrs. McPherson's Los Angeles troubles, but my church program is all blocked out in advance, and there is no room for an outsider. Also, she is so much in the public eye that her appearance would be too much like sensationalism.

REV. S. H. ROBLIN, Church of the Redemption (Universalist, Boylston and Jersey streets—Mrs. McPherson will not be allowed to speak in my church. We are in grave doubt about the whole matter, therefore we do not want, in any way, to be in touch with the work she is doing.

REV. F. S. FRIES, pastor Seventh Day Adventist Church, Columbus avenue—The only reason why Mrs. McPherson cannot speak here is that her teachings are not at all in harmony with Seventh Day Adventist principles. Regarding herself, however, she should be given the benefit of the doubt. If they could not find her guilty in Los Angeles, how can we here judge her in all fairness?

FAVOR BAUMES LAW FOR BAY STATE CRIME

Vigorous argument in favor of increasing penalties for felonies and prescribing life imprisonment for fourth convictions was heard today at the State House by the legislative committee on judiciary affairs.

The life imprisonment bill, of which the author is Dist. Atty. Bushnell of Middlesex County, is patterned on the New York Baumes Law and it would force judges to give life sentences on fourth offenses.

Attorney General Reading favored increasing penalties in general, but spoke in opposition to taking discretionary power from the judges by such a law as the Baumes law.

Crime has decreased since the law was put in operation in New York, the committee was told by Eben W. Burnstead. Collins Graham, Boston manager of the National Surety Company, also favored passage of Bushnell's bill, as did John H. Merrick, secretary to Police Commissioner Wilson.

Bushnell argued at length in favor of this bill and others, calling for increased penalties for simple assaults on police officers and assaults with dangerous weapons either on policemen or others.

He read a long list of States which already have laws of the Baumes law type and he cited the records of several inmates of State prison whose criminal careers included countless felonies over many years, saying they should have been imprisoned for life long ago.

cated apparatus of the big, steel drumlike still.

Fire Chief Tenney of Braintree reported that several hose lines were ruined by the heavy oil that flowed over the ground, and several firemen lost their boots in the thick, sticky stream.

The scene of the fire is on the main automobile road from the Cape and a large crowd of motorists stopped to watch the fight to get it under control.

Save Father and Son at Blaze in Everett

Two men, father and son, were rescued by policemen early today, and one fireman was badly hurt, when flames swept through part of a long block of stores on School street, Everett, directly opposite the Central fire station.

Two alarms and help from Chelsea were necessary before the flames were under control.

Fire officials estimated the loss at $12,000.

The fire gave the firemen a stiff battle for nearly two hours and the choking smoke forced Fire Chief Philip E. Ham to use his men in relays in getting at the source of the blaze. A half-dozen firemen were temporarily put out of action by the smoke but they later returned to duty.

Fred H. Gillis Peter F. Fitzgerald

The fire was discovered by Augustine Delaney and John McManus.

Patrolmen Peter Fitzgerald and Frederick Gillis arrived as the two civilians were giving the alarm. Knowing that Joseph Des Litis, 54, nightwatchman, and his son, Leo, 20, were in the building, the policemen broke down a door leading to the second floor and fought their way up through the smoke.

They found father and son groping blindly about in an upper room. The pair were taken down the fire escape to the street.

The New York Chain Stores, a dry goods concern, bore the brunt of the fire.

Practically every store in the block suffered water or smoke damage. The other stores included: Culver Company, radio accessories; J. A. Jones, dry goods; Rosetti Shoe Shop, Robinson and Sherman Company, Fred S. Thompson, dress goods; Everett Square Department store; Fack Secondhand store, and Albert Fitzpatrick, bowling alleys.

LAD WHO SLEW MAN DISOWNED

By DOROTHY VAN DYKE,
International News Service Special Correspondent.

New York, Feb. 16.—"Let them kill him. I don't care," so declared today Michael Ponkroskow, referring to his eleven-year-old son, Michael Jr., who shot and killed Marcus Gold in his leather shop in Richmond Hill, while trying to rob him Monday night.

"Tell my boy I'll take poison, tell him," sobbed the mother, but she clung to the hand of the reporter who promised to take a message to her son, and added, "tell him I can't come to see him."

Michael, a fair-haired, small boy, spoke glibly of his crime. "I ran away from home. I was going to work. I want to be an artist, a landscape and portrait painter," Michael explained. "I won two medals at school.

"They were good to me at home. My father only beat me once. But my mother always kept me in the house. I used to look out of the window."

At the neat home in Richmond Hill, the parents explained in broken English that the boy had been kept in after he had got into trouble, stealing from a drug store.

"Fifty-five years I am, and never no jail. At twelve years, my boy goes out and shoots a man," protested the elder Michael Ponkroskow, while his wife moaned, "I have shame."

"My family good. My wife's family good. Here and in old country, no arrests, no crazy. I work hard, pay $1,000 down, $75 a month for house, $7,000 in all, so my children have nice place when I die. I am an old man. I maybe die soon."

"Tell my boy I take something. I make me die," the mother moaned.

Sunday School Teacher ∾ Is a Dance Chorus Queen!

SHE HAS PIOUS DAYS AND BRIGHT LIGHT NIGHTS

Broadway is calling Mae Mildern "The Eighth Wonder of the World," because she's a Sunday school teacher—and because she dances in the chorus of "Rio Rita." She was with the show when it was in Boston recently, but no one here knew the sparkling, attractive girl in the front row, whose knees twinkled in and out of the steps, was a Sunday school teacher. In fact, she didn't look like one. But here's proof—her class of solemn-eyed youngsters in the chapel of the Ascension, New York. Then here is Mae in the chorus.

SEES 'LAW GAP,' TAX CUT AS MILLS' HOPE

Lowell, Feb. 16 (A.P.).—A three-year moratorium on all restrictive legislation, coupled with a 50 per cent reduction in local taxes, is what Massachusetts textile industry needs to put it on its feet, Russell H. Leonard, treasurer of the Pepperell Manufacturing Company, declared at a Chamber of Commerce meeting here today.

This State, he charged, had more regulatory laws than any other community in the world's history.

"Such procedure," he said, speaking of his recommendations, "might encourage manufacturers to tackle with renewed energy the many problems which make a responsible textile job today so little envied and so seldom sought.

"We have been doing a lot of talking about the ailments of the cotton goods industry, but the fact is we have not done anything to correct them, except to close up mill after mill. Unless there is a temporary downpour of profitable orders we have some important matters to attend to.

"Costs of production must be lowered by lowering taxation and by increasing production through better manufacture

"Local taxes should be half the present amount. I am frank to say I do not know how. It is not the sort of job with which I am familiar. But is is perfectly evident we have all educated ourselves to a scale of living, to ameliarating social conditions to an extent we cannot afford."

CITIZENS MAY PAY 101ST TO PARADE

Trouble over the Evacuation Day parade in South Boston on March 17 casts its shadow before.

The 101st Infantry of the Massachusetts National Guard, through its officers, has already given word that it will take no part in the parade, as the citizen soldiers have never been paid for turning out on that day, State and city continually passing the buck one to the other in the various disputes over the payment of the men.

Chief Marshal Charles Martin of the parade, after a conference with Colonel John D. Murphy of the 101st Infantry, announced that that unit had withdrawn from the parade.

The soldiers believe that $1,500 is still owed them.

Colonel Murphy explained that while his men naturally would be willing to participate in the celebration, they felt that the matter of last year's expense should be cleared up and the matter of this year's also.

The question has been hanging fire since last Spring and efforts to effect a settlement have been unsuccessful. The money in question covers the general expenses in connection with the turning out of the 101st companies. It has been the custom to allow $100 to each company.

South Boston citizens, it is believed, will, in the event of the city or State failing to pay the bills, contribute to a fund for the expenses incidental to the turning out of the 101st Regiment. It is their big day and without the presence of the regiment, which is the successor to the old and famous Ninth Regiment, the celebration would not be complete.

Members of the 101st Regiment, including their colonel, feel and hope that the matter will be satisfactorily settled.

22 LIVES TAKEN BY STORM ON PACIFIC COAST

San Francisco, Feb. 16.—Heavy rains, miniature cyclones, slight earthquakes and snowslides have visited various sections of California during the past 24 hours.

At least 22 persons have been killed as the direct result of the rains and snowslides.

Seven persons have been killed in Los Angeles in traffic accidents, the result of heavy rains.

Two members of the crew of a Union Pacific train were killed last night when the train plunged into a swollen creek about 15 miles from Los Angeles. Twenty passengers were injured, some of them critically. The train plunged through a bridge weakened by the rains of the past three days.

Another accident took the toll of two lives near Congress, Ariz., when a Santa Fe train crashed into a boulder that had been washed down on the track. The engineer and fireman were killed.

A snowslide at the construction camp on the Deep Creek tunnel project of the Southern California Edison Company, seventy-five miles northeast of Fresno, exacted another heavy toll. Eleven men are known to have been killed and others are thought to have met the same fate.

Yesterday a high wind ripped through the city of Taft, stripping buildings of roofs and injuring several persons.

A slight earthquake was registered at Salinas yesterday, but caused no damage.

TECH MAN SAYS FLAW CRASHED SHENANDOAH

New Haven, Ct., Feb. 16 (A.P.)—Defects in the metal work of the Shenandoah were the real cause of the wreck near Zanesville, O., on Sept. 3, 1925, according to Professor George L. Clark, director of the laboratory of applied chemistry of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, in an exclusive interview with the New Haven Register today.

For many months Professor Clark has been making minute studies of metal sections of the giant dirigible in the X-ray laboratories of the institute, and these have led him to the conclusion that defects in the metal rather than the fury of the storm through which the Shenandoah was riding, caused the tragedy he told the Register.

"I have said more than has been said before," Professor Clark told the Register, "and while we will know more in a month than we know now, there is no doubt but that the metal at the breaking point was defective.

"It may have been caused by improper treatment during the manufacture of the alloy, or it may have been caused by the effects of vibration and weather."

"The results of our study do not place the responsibility for this crash upon the manufacturers of the metal or of the dirigible. It was merely a case of inadequate knowledge. When the ship was built we did not know as much about X-ray examination of metals, and there was no way of discovering defects."

LINE UP VOTES IN HOUSE FOR FARM BILL

Washington, Feb. 16 (A.P.)—Heartened by their victory in the substitution of the Senate version of the McNary-Haugen farm relief bill for the House measure, its advocates today are marking time and consolidating forces for the final vote.

Today the House devotes itself to minor legislation.

Although the substitution motion was carried by a vote of 201 to 62 the action was not regarded by the legislation's supporters as an important index of the measure's chances. Tomorrow a more conclusive test is expected when the bill will reappear on the floor with amendments in order.

The announcement by Representative Aswell, Democrat, Louisiana, that he will move for the substitution of his own farm measure for the McNary-Haugen bill is considered a challenge which will probably result in a real test of strength. If his motion is lost, then another substitution—that of the Curtis-Crisp bill—will be attempted.

The supporters of the bill expect to have the final vote by Friday or Saturday, and, if the legislation is retained in the form approved by the Senate so no conference is necessitated, it will be immediately sent to the White House.

The belief President Coolidge will veto the bill is voiced by several Representatives. Many members would "vote for the bill because they think the President will veto it," Representative O'Connor, Democrat, Louisiana, declared.

MAL DAUGHERTY TELLS OF 'JESS SMITH' FUNDS

By DAVID P. SENTNER.
International News Service Correspondent.

New York, Feb. 16.—Mal Daugherty, head of the Midland National Bank of Washington Courthouse, O., resumed the witness stand today at the conspiracy trial of his brother, Harry M. Daugherty, former Attorney General of the United States, and Thomas W. Miller, former alien property custodian.

The defendants are charged with sharing in a $391,000 bribe to authorize the return of $7,000,000 in German war-seized assets. Direct examination of the Ohio banker was completed by the government yesterday and today the witness was taken over for cross-examination by Harold Corbin of defence counsel.

OWED POLITICAL FUND.

Referring to irregularities in the accounts of the Midland Bank, Daugherty testified that both he and his brother Harry had repeatedly asked Jess Smith, Harry's confidential aide, to straighten out the famous "Jess Smith extra" account, but Jess kept putting it off and had done it when he committed suicide in 1923.

Mal said the account was of a political nature, Jess being secretary of the Harding-for-President committee. He denied that Harry had ever drawn checks on the account, and said this was done by Smith only.

In explaining an item of $50,000 in bonds traced to Harry Daugherty's account, the witness said Jess Smith had deposited there as a partial settlement of the money he owed his political "extra account."

DEPOSITED $50,000 BONDS.

"It was about May 3, 1923 before he killed himself, that Jess Smith came into my bank," Mal testified. "He was excited and very sick and handed me five $10,000 bonds, $4,000 in cash and a check for about $3,500. 'There is a partial settlement of that political fund,' Jess said. 'I'm goin' to Washington and clean up the rest with a statement. Tell Harry I'll clean it up.'"

"Did Jess tell you how much shortage there was?"

"From $50,000 to $85,000," said Mal.

CUT PAY OR QUIT IS COAL EDICT

Miami, Fla., Feb. 16 (I.N.S.)—"Cut wages or go home."

This ultimatum was delivered to the miners today by the operators assembled here for the joint wage conference of the Central bituminous fields. It was the owners' answer to the miners' refusal to accept a wage cut, or substitute a sliding scale for the existing arbitrary rate of $7.50 a day for the union mines in Illinois, Indiana, Ohio and Pennsylvania.

There is a feeling of optimism in union ranks that a general breakdown in the industry can be avoided by signing agreements with separate districts or with individual coal companies.

'PANIC-PROOF' U. S. NEAR ITS RECORD BOOM

Washington, Feb. 16 (I.N.S.)—Business panics are a thing of the past; the motor industry never will reach the saturation point; 1927 will be as prosperous as the record 1926.

That's the way N. A. Hawkins of Detroit, "world champion salesman" and former sales manager of the Ford Motor Company, summed up America's business situation today.

Hawkins, who testified in the $30,000,000 Couzens tax appeal case that General Motors paid him $150,000 a year salary, was particularly optimistic as to the automobile industry, although he anticipated vital changes in its structure.

"I expect three or four big consolidations among automobile manufacturers within the next six months," Hawkins said. "Some companies are now preparing merger plans."

For the big producers there will never be a "saturation point," Hawkins said. He pointed out that immediately contemplated consolidations and other probable mergers probably will reduce the number of makes of cars.

The United States is reaching a point in its financial and business structure where panics are becoming impossible, Hawkins declared. "Money panics are at an end. The Federal Reserve system prevents them," he said. "Pessimistic reports on the present business picture are overdrawn. The year should be prosperous."

HEARST TROPHY PRESENTED TO 'TRUDY' FRIDAY

Chicago, Feb. 16 (Universal).—Gertrude Ederle, famed swimmer of the English Channel, will receive the William Randolph Hearst popularity trophy—an emblem of love, admiration and esteem won by the votes of more than half a million persons—next Friday afternoon at the Bal Tabarin in Hotel Sherman.

The big silver cup will be presented by Sheldon Clark, noted sportsman and chairman of the athletic committee of the Chicago Atheltic Association, and also a prominent member of the Illinois Athletic Club. Invited guests will include Chicago's most famous swimming champions, leaders in other branches of sport and prominent citizens.

Miss Ederle, who is now in Chicago, was awarded the trophy last Summer when Hearst newspapers conducted a popularity poll to determine the best-liked athlete in the United States.

After more than 500,000 votes had been received and tabulated, Miss Ederle's name stood at the top of the list. Second place went to Helen Wills, the pretty tennis star from California. Babe Ruth slugging ball star, was third. Trophies are to be presented to Miss Wills and "The Babe" in their home cities.

The trophy, which is a massive affair of solid silver, is now on exhibition in the windows of the Fair Department Store.

—Boston Evening American Staff Photo

While Dorchester police are investigating a mysterious rifle shot which shattered a window and lodged in the ceiling in the home of Michael Barnett, No. 10 Mill street, nine girl patients at the Homeopathic Nash House, which is nearby, are recovering from the fright caused by the shooting.

The girls heard the shot fired and according to Pearl Pettipas and Ruth McKay saw an automobile speed out of Mill street towards the boulevard. The bullet entered a room usually occupied by the Barnett family. At the time, however, they were listening to a radio concert. Miss Margaret McBride, superintendent at the hospital, had to quiet her patients.

TURNER FASTS 120 HOURS

she had wrested from him by legal process.

She charged that Hallen used a young woman nurse as a confederate on the Mexican border, and that this nurse, under pretense of vaccinating her, injected a fluid which brought on temporary blindness and a form of paralysis from which she is only now recovering.

Corroborated in her recital by Mrs. M. B. Titcomb of this city, Mrs. Kilbourne declared that physicians told her, when she was taken suddenly ill after the "vaccination," that there was no sign of a real vaccination.

She disclosed that she met Turner in Mexico City, but she declared [illegible] by Hallen, but she declared with emphasis that Turner, in killing Hallen, was avenging his own wrong, not hers.

MET TURNER AFTER RELEASE

"I am making this statement now to wipe out of the public mind the impression that I was the woman who helped Benjamin Turner when he was imprisoned in Mexico," said Mrs. Kilbourne. "Another woman helped him, but I will not tell her name.

"From the time I got that $65,000 from Hallen, I feared him. He tried many times to make me meet him in New York on business matters, but I refused. Hallen was brilliant, but a crook at heart. He could have been a successful lawyer but badness was deep-rooted in him.

"Turner is morally and physically clean. I first heard of him when Hallen told me about a university man, jailed in Mexico, whom he was trying to help, and I gave $10 to help him out. Later, when Turner was freed, I was introduced to him. Turner lived two years in jail in Mexico amid unspeakable filth."

COSMETIC BILL OPPOSED BY PROFESSOR

"This bill is ill-advised and loose[illegible]," said Prof. C. P. Weimer [illegible] University today in appearing before the legislative committee on public health in opposition to the so-called "cosmetics bill," which would prohibit the manufacture, sale or possession in Massachusetts of preparations containing certain [illegible].

"I have made a special study of cosmetics and their action upon the human body. The manufacture of cosmetics is essentially a clean business. More than 4,000,000 persons have their hair dyed in the United States every year and the best dye for this purpose at the present time contains one of the substances that this bill would prohibit.

MEN MUST DYE HAIR.

"Most of the people in this country who dye their hair are not girls who believe that 'gentlemen prefer blondes,' but good solid persons, many of whom couldn't find a job in old age unless permitted to dye their hair. I have known of men whose hair was becoming gray, that couldn't have secured jobs unless they dyed their hair.

"The bill is too broad. Why, if it became a law it would be necessary to place a label on ladies' lipsticks, ladies' compacts and even on belladonna plasters reading 'For external use only.' How ridiculous! Who wants to eat a compact or a belladonna plaster? I believe it would be more injurious to the public to have labels on cosmetics state what they contain than otherwise, as it would inform weak-minded persons of those that contain poisonous ingredients, which are essential.

"Physicians have been too 'high-hatted' regarding the use of cosmetics. Under the bill, as drawn, even corn cures and nail polishes would be transgressors."

A. W. Murray, secretary of The United Drug Company said: "This bill is altogether too broad. Under it even talcum powder, containing zinc, would have to bear a label reading 'For external use only.' No person with common sense would ever think of eating talcum powder.

This bill didn't originate in Massachusetts. It came from Mr. Howard, chief chemist of the state of New Hampshire and is part of the organized propaganda of state chemists throughout the country. There has been no call from the public for such a bill. We are opposed to it because it is using a 'big bertha' gun to kill a little bird."

RAPS 'NATION OF HYPOCRITES'

asserted that the referendum is not being asked in a spirit of hostility to either the eighteenth amendment or to the Volstead Act. The league itself, he declared, is neither wet nor dry, sectarian, or Republican or Democratic.

"The noly revelent issue is, not whether prohibition is a blessing or a curse, but solely the right of the people to express their opinion in a right and orderly manner," he said.

The Baby Volstead Act, he pointed out, was rejected by more than 100,000 in 1922. In 1924 the prohibitionists won out by a scant 8,163, with more than 300,000 blanks in the ballots cast.

QUESTIONS AT ISSUE.

He pleaded for the removal once and for all of the liquor question from politics in Massachusetts.

"Unless it is removed from politics it will destroy political parties as we know them," he warned.

Here are the two questions that the people would be called upon to ballot on:

1.—Shall the Senators from this Commonwealth and the representatives in Congress from this district be requested to support a constitutional amendment to repeal the Eighteenth Amendment to the constitution of the United States, known as the "prohibition amendment?

2.—Shall the Senators from this Commonwealt hand the Representatives in Congress from this district be requested to support amendments of the federal statute, known as the "Volstead act," so changing its provision conformably to the Eighteenth Amendment to the constitution of the United States, as to permit the manufacture, transportation and sale, for beverages purposes, of beer, wine and other beverages containing a greater percentage of alcohol than is at present permitted by said provisions?"

LABOR WANTS CHANGE.

Asked by a member of the committee if the signatures were secured wholly through volunteer work, Crooker said some weer obtained in that manner, while others were listed through solicitors, who were paid five cents a signature.

John J. Carney, representing organized labor, prophesied that the Volstead act will never be fully enforced until the people have spoken definitely on the question. Labor, he said, wants beer and light wines.

General Charles H. Cole was another speaker in favor of the referendum. Among a number of letters read was one from Major Walton A. Green, former chief prohibition enforcement officer, which said in part:

"It boils down to this—to deny any given community the right to express its opinion on the ground that such opinion will not immediately alter any fundamental law—to deny this—is to stulify the entire underlying principle of referring any question whatsoever to the people."

Liabilities of $337,995 and assets of $279,523 are disclosed in a bankruptcy schedule filed today by Butler's, Inc., Tremont street, in Federal Court. Of the total liabilities, secured claims amount to $119,687, and $188,307 is in unsecured claims. One item in the schedule lists [illegible] due as additional Federal income taxes.

PEACE PARLEY REFUSED IN TAXI STRIKE

[illegible] offers for peace on the part of striking taxi drivers met with a [illegible] today, according to President John T. Rockett of the Town Taxi Company.

"I declined to confer with union agents whose overtures were made," President Rockett announced. "The union has started this strike, but it will see the Town Taxi Company [illegible] it."

P. Frank Gallagher, business agent of the striking taxi drivers' union, said that he had been to Rockett's office for a conference, but that nothing in the way of a compromise had been effected.

"The outlook for a settlement of the strike within the next couple of days is dubious," reported Gallagher. "After that, there might be some sort of compromise offered."

Gallagher was to appear at a meeting of the strikers at [illegible] Washington street late today to give a survey of present conditions of the strike.

In the meantime there are 25 Town taxi-cabs in operation throughout the city. Each is accompanied by a police officer.

At the headquarters of the taxi company a number of policemen are waiting for new drivers to be hired. According to the policy announced by company officials as soon as men can produce licenses they will be given a cab and a police escort and sent out.

BUTLER MEETS BORAH IN HUB DRY DEBATE

President Nicholas Murray Butler of Columbia University and exponent of "wet" principles in the Republican party, has accepted an invitation to speak before the Roosevelt Club of this city.

Replying to an invitation sent him by Robert M. Washburn, president of the club, President Butler said: "I am quite ready to discuss, not the liquor question, but the attempt to enforce national prohibition by constitutional amendment, under the auspices of the Roosevelt Club if a convenient date can be arranged." He expressed thanks "for the compliment of the invitation."

BETTY ALDEN'S COMMENT ON SOCIETY

Members of Boston's Smart Set Entertaining and Being Entertained on the American Riviera; "Snow Maiden" to Be Presented at Symphony Hall This Evening

LIFE AT THE "AMERICAN RIVIERA" MOVES ON ITS brilliant way, to a tune of almost incessant entertaining and embellished by feminine finery truly ravishing—for it is at Palm Beach that the newest conceits of fashion first see the light of the bright blue day. And what finds highest favor there as ultra chic will be "good" later on at Newport and Southampton. Boston has more than one attractive matron belonging to the villa colony whose gowns and chapeaux and accessories successfully ally American individuality and Parisian smartness. One such is Mrs. Charles L. Harding, of Dedham, Newport and Villa Chlora at Palm Beach. The Harding estate and the Harding hospitalities and the feminine Harding wardrobe, each play a highly important part in the social scheme of the Southern resort.

MRS. HARDING, AT THE EVERGLADES ORANGE GARDEN for tea, was charming in a two-piece French handmade frock of palest maize, beneath one of the turquoise colored day coats that are finding much favor. Another afternoon, this time more formally turned out, Mrs. Harding wore a hand faggoted chiffon with soft transparent drapery and picture hat of maline, as summery and dainty and feminine as a Watteau shepherdess. Mrs. Arthur Blake of Dedham, Mrs. Harding's sister, has been a house guest at "Chlora." Mrs. Blake, possessing great artistic individuality, imbues her wardrobe with utmost distinction. At the Beach Club in soft rose, handmade flat crepe, she was the very essence of smart simplicity, which is the dominant daytime fashion note.

FOR THAT SWAGGERLY TURNED OUT YOUNG GIRL, Miss Marjorie Oelrich of New York, Mrs. Harding entertained a dinner company of twenty. Miss Oelrich, belonging to the leisured wealthy set that follows the birds in their annual migration southward, possesses a distinctive wardrobe. Her daytime frocks and hats breathe Paris in every line, and her evening gowns are confections. Dancing at the Everglades, she was wearing an airy net and beige lace, garlanded in sky blue velvet ribbands. A wrap of oriental sumptuousness donned later was done in lame, of black and green with draped butterfly sleeves. Lady Lavery's colored ermine coat, of beige, lined in orchid was an exotic feature of a delicately toned costume for tea when Mrs. Charles V. G. Clarke entertained at her studio out in County road for Sir John Lavery, the British R. A., and his Lady.

LADY LAVERY AND SIR JOHN ARE BEING royally feted during their southern stay—and everywhere does the beautiful Anglo-American create something of a sensation even in a resort overwhelmingly rich in feminine pulchritude. Her exotic type was particularly well set off in a hand painted lace gown beneath a chartreuse brocade wrap, having a pearl gray fox collar. Another day she charmed every beholder with her white silk frock and dahlia toned cape and small straw chapeau. Mrs. Paris Singer, chatelaine of a luxuriously appointed Everglades Club apartment, is another feminine reason supporting Palm Beach's claim to be the very centre of fashion's universe. Her dark red blouse costume with matching hat, for an Everglades luncheon, was vastly effective. Likewise her dance frock of frothy tulle weighted with tiny square crystals and sashed in turquoise, matching her enormously long turquoise ear drops and scarab pendant.

MRS. LEONARD D. AHL IS A SMART MATRON in whom Boston has more than passing interest. She and Mr. Ahl have this season to a certain extent deserted Palm Beach, and set up their Winter household at Port Sewall. However, they appear frequently at the most exclusive of the Beach's gathering places—the Beach Club, for instance. Mrs. Ahl in hyacinthe blue, a harem veil swathing her broad hat and a rope of pearls about her throat, caught every feminine eye in admiration tinged with envy. And on another occasion, in the trig morning frock of crepe, pleated and hand tucked in severest simplicity, Mrs. Ahl was much admired.

QUITE DIFFERENTLY ARRAYED DOES MRS. JEROME NAPOLEON BONAPARTE essay the Palm Beach round of things that are "done." This stately matron carries off supremely well a certain elaborateness of costume. At the Everglades she wore white crepe with handkerchief scarf collar, a wide, black felt hat and black sandals, as she entertained the Laverys. Another appearance was distinguished by one of the new coolie wraps of brilliant tropic colors that are the newest of the new as regards accessories to Milady's wardrobe. Mrs. Bonaparte's selection was a primitive mingling of opal blue streaked with rose and black, a splash of color gorgeous as a sunset.

YOUNG MR. THORNTON COOLIDGE IS TO LIFT up his voice in a Russian song this evening, singing in Russian, if you please, as the pretty fantasy "Snow Maiden" is presented at Symphony Hall. That he has a certain fluency in this ever-difficult-to-master tongue does not surprise Mr. Coolidge's friends, who know him as a versatile youth facile in the arts, sports or languages. He plays the character of a handsome Russian stripling, wearing the swagger belted coat and top boots of Slavic picturesqueness, as male lead, just as he did last December when the "Snow Maiden" was given at Jordan Hall. A duo of organizations benefits—the Fellowship of Faiths and the League of Neighbors.

PRINCE IRALKY TOUMANOFF AND HIS BALALAIKA-PLAYING TROUPE provide the incidental music to "Snow Maiden" and add materially to the Muscovite suggestion. In their turquoise and white satin tunic costumes they are as Russian as can be, while the balalaika, in the hands of such players, is perhaps the most heart stirring of all instruments. It was Prince Toumanoff who, three Winters ago, introduced to Boston's ultra set this hauntingly sweet music at the Russian cabaret at the Republican Club that took the town literally by storm. He and his stately spouse, the Princess Sophia Toumanoff, were mainly responsible for the cabaret's smashing success, and the "Snow Maiden" presentation finds them equally devoted workers.

RIGHT STRAIGHT THROUGH THE "SNOW MAIDEN" has the most Russian of atmospheres, what with Dr. Kasimir A. Kovalsky directing, besides designing and making the stage sets. Madame Olga Kovalsky had a hand in planning the costumes, those creations of gorgeously barbaric color and Oriental line. Others notable in the immensely distinguished Russian colony promoting the production are Captain Michael Ouspensky and Madame Ouspensky, Madame Eleana Kazarinoff and Mlle. Sonia Ruskoff. So there'll be no lack of detail true to the great land of the Great Bear in its great and glorious past. In the sponsor list Boston shines in its usual sponsor way—Mrs. Philip Saltonstall is down, so are Mrs. Joseph D. Deland, Mrs. Edward Clark Streeter, Mrs. Albert Sauveur, Mrs. Henry Lloyd Smith and ever so many others.

TENNIS FOR MANY OF BOSTON'S YOUNG MATRONS and girls is the premiere sport, no matter what the season. Many topnotchers frequent the indoor courts at the Longwood Cricket Club. Mrs. Samuel Felton, 3d; Mrs. Roger Griswold (the former Penelope Parkman), Mrs. J. Lewis Bremer, Mrs. Huntington R. Hardwick and Miss Marjorie Morrill are but a few of those who can put the ball over the net in spirited fashion, rating high in the amateur ranks. Boston has many such.

Betty Alden

MISS MARJORIE MORRILL

Boston's younger set numbers many tennis players well up in the championship class, one very promising performer being Miss Marjorie Morrill, a debutante of the past Winter.

HOLD ELECTION AT RADCLIFFE

In preparation for its commencement activities the Radcliffe Senior Class held Class Day elections in Agassiz Theatre. The seniors honored include:

Class marshal, Ethel Cummings of Boston; permanent secretary, Mary Williams of Cambridge; chairman of baccalaureate, Emily [illegible] of Arlington; chairman of Class Day, Anne [illegible] of Erie, Pa.; chairman of Class Day invitations, Elizabeth Chase of Ware; class poet, Margaret Kahn of Youngstown, O.; giver of gifts, Mina Wallace of [illegible]; class lawyer, Lydia Edwards of Cambridge; class historian, Dorothea Sibley of Springfield.

Last Spring the class officers were elected: Martha Hale of Middletown, Ct., president; Minerva Caldwell of Medford, vice-president; Elizabeth Stewart of Somerville, secretary; Harriet Bettoney of Jamaica Plain, treasurer; Frances Anderson of Boston, song leader, and Margaret Robinson of Lake Worth, Fla., editor of the Year Book.

They, with the newly-elected Class Day officers, will follow the college tradition of wearing red tassels on their academic caps instead of the usual black.

Honored

CLASS OFFICERS

Margaret Kahn of Youngstown, O., elected class poet by the Radcliffe seniors, and Margaret Robinson of Lake Worth, Fla., chosen editor of the Radcliffe Year Book.

URGES "PRESENT VALUE" ON PUBLIC UTILITIES

New Haven, Feb. 16 (A.P.)—Public utilities should receive returns based upon present value rather than upon investment, Prof. Winthrop M. Daniels, Thomas DeWitt Cuyler professor of transportation at Yale University, told the members of the Connecticut Society of Civil Engineers today in an address on "Investment Versus Present Value."

Where utility properties were mainly constructed prior to 1915, the measure of their "prudent investment" will be far less than the amount which is ordinarily found to represent their present value, owing to post-war increase in the price level, said Prof. Daniels.

CHINESE NATIONALISTS TO ABOLISH CONFUCIANISM

Peking, Feb. 16 (I.N.S.)—Declaring Confucianism to be an antiquated philosophy totally unsuited to the modern world, the Nationalist regime has decided to abolish Confucian worship and all religious observances connected therewith, according to reports appearing in the local press today.

The philosophies of the ancient Confucius—sometimes called a religion—were condemned in the Nationalist mandate as a tool with which the authorities suppressed new thoughts and subjugated the Chinese people.

STUDENTS WILL GIVE 'MIKADO'

Miss Muriel A. Archung of Boston has been selected as "Yum Yum," the soprano and leading woman in "The Mikado," which is to be produced during Junior Week in April, as the annual show by Boston University students. Miss Archung is a member of the class of '28 at the College of Business Administration.

Among the others in the cast are a brother and sister, Felice and William Crane of Dover, who have been chosen as "Katisha" and "The Mikado." Miss Crane is a contralto and her brother is a baritone. The role of "Nanki Poo," calling for a tenor, has been won by Howard B. Lyford, '28, of Wayland, and "Ko Ko," a baritone comedian, will be sung by Irwin C. Cowper, '28, of Brookline.

Lena B. Lord, of Everett, a freshman in the College of Liberal Arts, has won the role of "Pitti Sing," an alto part. The soprano "Peep Bo" will be Helen P. Stinson, Arlington Heights, of the School of Education.

Jailed as Jagged Driver

Found guilty of operating an automobile while he was under the influence of liquor, Felix Carlson of Hill street, Norwood, was sentenced to thirty days in the House of Correction today by Judge Sanborn in Dedham district court. He appealed.

PASTOR GRANT BURIED TODAY

Many noted clergymen and others gathered at Forest Hills Cemetery today to pay honor to the Rev. Percy Stickney Grant, late pastor of the Church of the Ascension in New York.

Funeral services were held in St. Matthew's Protestant Episcopal Church in New York, and the body was placed on the train for Boston, accompanied by the pastor's family and friends.

Among those at the burial services held in the Forest Hills Cemetery chapel were Mrs. Eugene Stone, sister of the late ecclesiast, and his nephew Dr. Eric Stone.

E. C. NILES DIES SIX WEEKS AFTER WEDDING

Concord, N. H., Feb. 16 (I.N.S.)—Edward C. Niles, former assistant to the Director of Public Service in the United States Railroad Administration during the World War and former chairman of the New Hampshire Public Service Commission, died here today. He was married six weeks ago to Miss Mabel Young, of Chevy Chase, Washington, D. C. He was born in Hartford, Ct., March 28, 1865.

Mr. Niles, the son of the late Bishop William W. Niles, of the Episcopal diocese of New Hampshire, was recently special attorney for New Hampshire before the Interstate Commerce Commission in the hearings over the proposed abandonment of railroads in this State.

RUSSIAN PLAY WILL BE GIVEN AT SYMPHONY HALL

"Snegourotchka" ("Snow Maiden"), the play by Ostrovsky on which Rimsky-Korsakoff's opera was based and first produced in English at a charity performance here last December, will be repeated in Symphony Hall tomorrow night, this time for the benefit of the League of Neighbors and the Fellowship of Faiths.

The chief changes are the substitution of A. Nurzcynski's Polish Chorus for the Grigorieff Chorus; a number of new dances done by Sonia Ruskoff's Russian Ballet; the appearance of Miss Dorothy Carroll as Snegourotchka, and the addition by Thornton Coolidge, Harvard undergraduate, of Rimsky-Korsakoff's "Song of the Indian Guest" (in Russian) in the spoken role of Misguerr.

As before, Prince Toumanoff will lead his balalaika orchestra; Dr. Kasimir A. Kovalsky will direct the production, and new and original sets of his making will be used, with the costumes designed by Mrs. Olga Kovalsky. Miss Eva Durfee will appear as Reduska.

SENIORS TO BE GUESTS OF RADCLIFFE CLUB

Radcliffe seniors are to be guests of honor at the fourth regular meeting of the Radcliffe Club of Boston on Wednesday evening at 8:15 in Agassiz Theatre. For their entertainment there will be three one-act plays—"When Shall We Meet Again," "Rendez - Vous," and "Strings"—written and directed by Raymond Knight, and presented by the Pleiad Players. In the cast are some former members of 47 Workshop, including Doris Sanger, Rhoda Edwards, and Kent Smith. Between the plays will be music of which Anne Rosenblatt, of Omaha, Neb., president of the Radcliffe Music Club, is in charge.

LIMITING RUBBER EXPORTS TO "SAVE THE INDUSTRY"

New York, Feb. 16 (A.P.)—Great Britain's restriction on exportation of rubber was described here by Joyce Broderick, commercial counsellor to the British Embassy at Washington, "as a measure of protection," not price-fixing. Speaking at the first annual dinner of the New York Rubber Exchange, Mr. Broderick said the restrictive move was made "with the sole purpose of saving an important industry from too harsh a working of the law of supply and demand," not "to push up prices of the greatest commodity of the empire."

JOHN D. OFFERS $50,000 TOWARD GEORGIA SCHOOL

Atlanta, Ga., Feb. 16 (A.P.)—John D. Rockefeller, Jr., has made public today an offer of $50,000 toward a fund of $150,000 being raised to rebuild and consolidate the Rabun Gap School and Nacoochee Institute near Rabun Gap, established several years ago by the Presbyterian synod of Georgia for the education of mountain people.

Mr. Rockefeller's gift will be made on the basis of matching one dollar for every two contributed, up to the amount he has offered, provided the fund is completed by July 1.

attempted suicide. The bullet which blinded him also is held responsible for his death by prison physicians, who think the hemorrhage was due to complications resulting from the old wound, according to Warden John W. Snook.

The sightless Gilpatric was twice recommended for the Christmas clemency as the most deserving of more than 3,000 prisoners at the Atlanta Federal penitentiary, it was said here.

After being sent to Atlanta, Gilpatric was adjudged bankrupt upon petition of creditors presenting claims aggregating $283,115, of which the largest was that of the Putnam bank of which he had been cashier, of $250,000 funds embezzled.

LADY ASTOR IN LONDON TALKS WITH VIRGINIA

Richmond, Va., Feb. 16 (A.P.)—Lady Nancy Astor talked with "home" today in the first trans-Atlantic radio telephone conversation between Virginia and the British Isles.

The Virginia-born woman member of the British Parliament was in her home in St. James Square, London, when the tinkle of the bell called her to the telephone to speak with John Stewart Bryan, publisher of the Richmond News-Leader.

"Hello! Who is this?" she asked.

"This is Stewart Bryan in Richmond. Hello Nannie!" she heard.

"Hey! Why—"

The telephone call was too much for the former Nannie Langhorne. She was too surprised for the moment to talk.

"Here are a lot of your Virginia friends listening in, Nannie," Mr. Bryan said. "Here's Harry Byrd, Governor of Virginia, and here's Mayor Bright, and Eliz Scott and Eggie Fairfax and many others."

FILMLAND'S ROMANCE IN NEW SERIAL

Breathes there a girl with soul so dead, who never to herself hath said: "I'd like to get in the movies"?

It doesn't seem very likely. Every girl with an ounce of attraction has seen herself as a potential star at some time.

It's a golden land, this Hollywood, but there are sharp rocks before the gold is gained.

Bobbie Ransom is a school teacher, petite, vivacious, blonde. She had that yearn for motion picture glory, and finally makes her way to the magic land, where she expects to find fame.

How Bobbie Ransom got to Hollywood, what she did when she got there, her first struggle for a foothold—but more important perhaps—what her man thought and did about it—are all thrillingly told in "The Hollywood Girl." Start it next Monday in the Boston Evening American.

TODAY

You can't judge the present by the past.

MICHAEL PONKRASHAW, Jr., twelve years old, killed a storekeeper yesterday. Usual motive, robbery.

At this "high spot" in the frightful crime wave, ancient heads will wag and you will hear "modern ways of bringing up children without punishment lead to such things."

However, this particular boy said he left home, got his pistol and did his killing after receiving from his father a beating that he considered unjust. That is also something to think about.

AS BERTRAND RUSSELL says, in his recent most admirable book on "Education and the Good Life," Englishmen, beaten as boys for disobedience at Eton, thought it quite natural to beat natives in India when they were disobedient.

DR. SZE says China demands "liberty," which is reasonable, but new, in Asia. In all India's literature of five thousand years, the word "liberty" does not once occur.

Chinese, however, are different from the people of India.

What is the Chinese definition of "liberty"? Every nation, almost every man, has a different definition. Liberty means one thing in Italy, another in Moscow. Jesting Pilate asked, "What is truth?" and would not wait for an answer. Liberty is more difficult to define than truth.

IF POSSIBLE, go to Galveston, Tex., in May. See the beauty contest which will give to some girl the title, "Beauty Queen of the Universe."

She will deserve the title, although it would surprise us if we could see some other beauty queens scattered through this universe. For instance, female beauty on the planets that revolve around the suns in the great, distant nebula of Orion, 1,000,000 light years or so from here, may be amazingly different from the Hollywood model of 1927.

And today's Queen of Beauty, with her big teeth, hair and heavy bones, would look strange to the inhabitants of this earth 100,000 or 5,000,000 years hence.

WHAT COUNTS is not how you start, but how you finish, as proved by two items in the news. Years ago, a boy named Bamberger took a job at $1 a week to run errands, glad to get the job, glad to run. It was a start. Now, to his $22,000,000 dry goods plant in Newark he builds on a $10,000,000 addition. And men from bigger cities go to Newark to study his ways of running a business.

THE SECOND item tells of a boy fifteen years old landing at Ellis Island, twenty-three years ago, blind from overstudy in poor candle light. He got by the immigration authorities, went to the blind asylum, learned to read with his fingers, made a living selling newspapers, then started other businesses, made money. Now he establishes a home for the blind.

IF YOU like miracles, consider this. Peter Kraus, sailor on a freight ship in midocean, drove particles of iron into his right eye while using a drill, and suffered agonies. Far away, Dr. Francis, ship's surgeon, picked up by radio details of the sailor's trouble. He sent wireless directions, ordering them to stop using cocaine, telling them how to make a magnet. The magnet extracted the iron particles instantly, pain stopped, the man went back to work.

PONZI TO SELL LIFE STORY TO AID WIFE

In solitary confinement at Charlestown State Prison, Charles Ponzi, one-time financial wizard, started his seven to nine year sentence by outlining the story of his life, which he will attempt to sell to some publication.

While Ponzi, himself, will have little need of money for some time to come, he hopes to make some money for his wife, the faithful Rose Ponzi, who is ill from grief over her husband's plight, and who is reported as losing her sight.

"I've been a fool, but not a rascal," said Ponzi, in a last interview, as the prison doors clanked behind him. "I was simply over-confident in myself and my plans.

"I hope to be able to sell my story to some publication for enough money to keep my wife until I get out of prison," he said. "It will be more than seven years, I'm sure. I've done with hoping that it will be any less.

"My lawyers told me the last time it would only be one-third of the time I had to serve, and I was bitterly disappointed. So I won't hope this time. I'm just going to prison and forget that I am a live man. I shall be dead for seven years or more.

"But mark this. If things come out there are a number of men in this city and in this State who were instrumental in sending me to prison who will follow me there. Somebody got away with plenty."

Children Cry For Fletcher's CASTORIA

Why Castoria?

Years ago Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups were the remedies in common use for Infants and Children; Castor Oil so nauseating as to be almost impossible and the others all containing Opium in one form or another, but so disguised as to make them pleasant to the taste, yet really to stupefy the child and give the appearance of relief from pain.

It required years of research to find a purely vegetable combination that would take the place of these disagreeable, unpleasant and vicious remedies that from habit had become almost universal. This was the inception of, and the reason for, the introduction of Fletcher's Castoria, and for over 30 years it has proven its worth, received the praise of Physicians everywhere and become a household word among mothers.

A remedy ESPECIALLY prepared for Infants and Children and no mother would think of giving to her baby a remedy that she would use for herself, without consulting a physician

To avoid imitations, always look for the signature of Chas H Fletcher

Proven directions on each package. Physicians everywhere recommend it.

DOCTOR GAVE HER MIXTURE TO STOP COUGHING SPELLS

Coughed So Bad People Stared — Began to Worry Family

HAWKED AND SPIT UP PHLEGM EACH MORNING

"A person with a bad cough is a fool not to see their doctor right away," declares Mrs. D. R. Shedwell. "I coughed in church, in the office where I work and at the movies so bad people would stare at me. Mornings I was a nuisance around the house, coughing up phlegm and mucus. At night I breathed through my mouth and morning my mouth was dry and tasted awful.

SAW HER DOCTOR

"Our old doctor met me on the street and noticed I coughed every minute or so, I told him 25c cough remedies did no good and I couldn't take cod liver oil. He laughed and wrote down the name 'Linonine' and told me it was a nice-tasting Flax-seed mixture with Eucalyptus, etc., far better than Cod Liver Oil and quicker, too.

WONDERFUL RESULTS

"Only the bigger downtown stores had Linonine, but it's worth going miles to get. My cough loosened up and vanished almost like magic. Since then a dozen friends who were wheezing and coughing around have taken Linonine and even the kids in the neighborhood like to take it when they get a cough or cold. It builds you up, too."

A cough is a nasty, annoying thing to have, and dangerous, too, this time of year. A 50c or $1.00 bottle at home does the work. Well stocked druggists have Linonine made by the nationally known Kerr Chemical Co., or send dollar bill with name and address to Kerr Chemical Co., Brentwood, Md., for large bottle postage free to your home.

Youngsters need this purifying toilet soap

—it removes germs, as well as dirt

TRY as you will—you can't keep children from touching germ-laden things!

Those active little fingers simply must handle books and pencils—must fondle pets—must touch desks, chairs, toys—and countless other things on which germs may lurk.

And your own hands—your husband's hands—touching money, telephones, dust pan, mop—they can't escape germs, either. Health authorities say hands are among the chief carriers of sickness. See 27 germ diseases, above, which hands may spread.

To guard against this menace—let every member of your family wash at all times with the purifying toilet soap that removes germs, as well as dirt.

A habit in 63,000 schools

In over 63,000 schools, children have learned to wash regularly with Lifebuoy—before meals, before bed, after using the toilet—simply because its antiseptic lather helps protect against sickness.

Children love this bubbly lather that washes away dirt in a jiffy. Millions of men will use nothing but Lifebuoy for toilet and bath. Women, too, say it benefits their skin amazingly—makes it clear and satin-smooth.

And finally, Lifebuoy gives all-day freedom from perspiration odor—every Lifebuoy user testifies to that.

Greater protection—its hygienic scent tells you why

Lifebuoy is so different from other toilet soaps that even its scent is different. Not a perfume, but a clean, pleasantly hygienic scent which proves Lifebuoy gives greater protection. Even before you've finished your first cake, you'll learn to love this cleanest of all soap scents, which quickly evaporates after rinsing.

Without its antiseptic, Lifebuoy would still be a wonderful toilet soap—but you wouldn't get the same protection.

Like millions of others, once you form the Lifebuoy habit, you'll wonder how any other soap ever satisfied you.

Nothing extra to buy

Lifebuoy costs no more—probably less—than the soap you are now using—so the protection it gives you is actually free!

You can get Lifebuoy wherever soap is sold. You will know it by the red box and the cake—orange-red, the color of its pure palm-fruit oils. Lever Bros. Co., Cambridge, Mass.

And Mrs. Richard Lanigan, Jamaica Plain, says:

I certainly am grateful to the teacher who gave my little girl a sample cake of Lifebuoy. Playing around as they do, children are so apt to pick up germs that they really need an antiseptic soap to keep them safe against sickness. But Lifebuoy is more than a protecting toilet soap. It makes my skin so clear and keeps my hair so nice. And now that we're used to its nice clean smell, none of us could ever be satisfied with any perfumed soap.

MRS. RICHARD LANIGAN,
908 Centre St., Jamaica Plain, Mass.

From all over the country come letters like this. No wonder millions are turning to Lifebuoy.

BOY TORTURERS SENTENCED

"The only difference between you and Jesse Pomeroy is that he did the same things to children," said Judge Barnes in East Boston court today when passing sentence on two boys charged with torturing four horses to death.

Joseph Grillo, 14, and George Russo, 17, were charged with entering a stable at No. 282 Broman street and torturing the crazed animals until they had to be destroyed.

S. P. C. A. agents said it was the worse case they had ever heard of.

Russo was sentenced to the Massachusetts Reformatory. Grillo, being a juvenile, was held as a delinquent. Their cases were appealed.

War and Wall Street Out of Date---Ford

By H. V. WILKINS

(Copyright, 1927, by Universal Service)

Detroit, Feb. 16.—Henry Ford has revealed himself as a man who is visionary, yet intensely practical. He showed he is a radical against established order, but a firm believer in the old-fashioned rule; plain in his mode of living and conversation, but most fantastic in his dreams of the future.

Washington, Feb. 16 (I.N.S.).—The New York Stock Exchange never would accept Henry Ford's motor stock for listing because of restrictions which did not make the shares readily negotiable, Henry G. S. Noble, former president of the exchange, testified today as a government witness in the $30,000,000 tax suit against former Ford stockholders.

He is tolerant of personal beliefs and foibles in others, but bitterly antagonistic to all systems which he believes hamper the march of mechanical and scientific progress, or subjugate any group of people to hidebound customs.

"Out of date," is one of his favorite expressions in speaking of the condition of the farmer, the methods of Wall Street, and war.

Anything is worth trying, he believes, providing you are big enough to realize you are on the wrong track, when it is proved impractical. He believes that no one should be ashamed of failure if the original effort was directed toward progress.

Take the famous Ford peace ship of World War history. On the episode Mr. Ford has no regrets because:

"The motive behind that mission was good. Whether it appeared to be shooting at the moon or not, makes no difference. The idea was basically correct. The 'motive' behind the peace ship eventually will abolish war.

"To make a success of anything, one must properly time his announcement of new projects and ideas, otherwise your effort is abortive, useless, foredoomed to failure.

"That, in short, sums up the peace ship. The world was not educated to grasp the true meaning behind it. It was grounded on common sense. War is the most useless idea ever created by man.

"War will cease only when the individual realizes that it is economic suicide. That time is near, I believe."

WOULD STARVE BORER

His impatience with those who are fearful of any new proposition was indicated when the subject of the European corn borer was touched upon. This scourge has caused the loss of millions of dollars throughout the Mid-West.

In three words he summed up his cure.

"Stop growing corn. Starve the borer to death. Two years, or one year of no corn and the epidemic would be over."

The economic condition that penalizes the Southern farmer for producing large crops come in for a scathing denunciation.

"I have no patience with the old methods of farming. They are on the way out and the man who insists on farming in the old-time manner is on the way out with them. Cotton becomes a curse to the South, when cotton is all that the farmer knows. If cotton fails, they have nothing else to fall back upon.

"Refusal to adopt modern mechanical methods which some one else has thought of, whether it be in the industrial or the agricultural field, is the first step down to failure."

"Enthusiasm. That's the greatest motive power in the world. I like enthusiasm. I like men who are enthusiastic, even in their hatreds, not of men, but of conditions."

ABHORS LIARS

"And what do you abhor most?"

"Liars, thieves-personal or corporate-and war. They are the three horsemen who keep the world from progressing."

Mr. Ford is an omniverous reader of newspapers, but he admits that he has too little time for deep reading. His favorite books are Emerson and the works of John Burroughs.

"All that Burroughs wrote of, I and every boy that ever lived on a farm knows. He was a great man personally. He brought a sense of nature back to men just when the cities were beginning to take it from them."

The drama has never appealed strongly to him, he admitted. When he was in Washington last week, he attended a vaudeville performance. He confessed that he "had the time of his life" at this show.

He suddenly reached into his pocket and pulled out a small paper bag. It contained a few peanuts. On the outside was printed: "If you have enjoyed the show, be sure to tell Withers."

Mr. Ford chuckled as he rattled the goobers around in the bag. Then he said:

"You know these were given to me as I was leaving the theatre. Anyway, it was a good show and I'm going to write this man Withers and tell him so."

MUST TRIM SAILS

Mr. Ford is one man who does not give his wife entire credit for his success. Of this he said:

"That wife and success idea is overdone. Certainly any real wife is an aid to success. Husband and wife must be component parts in each other's lives to make marriage successful to any degree."

In conclusion he said:

"Nations and individuals are prone to ride the high tide of prosperity without giving a thought to the future. No one ever takes exception to prosperity. The wise man, however, forgets not the ever-present possibility, that present conditions may change, that hard times can come.

"The man who has given thought to those matters, trimmed his sails so that he is not caught napping when adverse winds begin to blow, is the one who does not go under."

KICKED OUT OF BED, SAYS WIFE; GRANTED DIVORCE

Mrs. Tillie Stucker Le Cour, former Kentucky belle, told Judge Arthur P. Bean in Middlesex Probate Court today that she excelled at dodging things from practicing with her husband. She charged him with cruelty and was granted a decree nisi.

She testified he kicked her out of bed several times and blacked her eyes. The dodging incident she referred to occurred when he threw a hat box at her. She said she ducked it. Her husband, Victor L. Le Cour, is living in Gardner. He did not contest her action. Her former home was Louisville, Ky.

PLAN PUBLICITY BOARD FOR BAY STATE

Massachusetts will have a State publicity board if a bill sponsored by the New England Council, Chamber of Commerce, Boston Advertising Club and other prominent organizations is received favorably by the Governor and the Legislature. The bill will be heard before the Committee on State Administration Affairs at the State House tomorrow.

The bill, filed by the secretary of the Massachusetts Chamber of Commerce, proposes to establish as an emergency measure a board of publicity for Massachusetts composed of three members. These men would be appointed by the Governor with the advice and consent of his council, and would receive no salaries.

It is pointed out that other States have benefitted considerably by the establishment of like boards, and the larger cities have gained both in wealth and population as a result of making their advantages known to the public.

Proponents of the bill declare that such a publicity board could do much to keep industries in Massachusetts that might otherwise move away, and to attract new ones that are dubious of locating here because they lack knowledge of this State's taxation labor laws, and its place in the competitive market.

Under the provisions of the bill an appropriations of $75,000 would be called for to be spent on approved State publicity purposes for the current year. Later the sum would be fixed by the board with the approval o fthe governor. None of the members of the board would receive salaries under the bill, but suitable quarters and clerical assistance would be provided.

SAYS U. S. USES FINANCIAL PRESSURE ON MEXICO

Washington, Feb. 16 (I.N.S.).—The United States is directing a financial and economic boycott against Mexico "that is far deadlier than armed intervention," Jose Miguel Bejarano, of the Mexican Chamber of Commerce, New York, charged before the Senate Foreign Relations Sub-Committee today.

"American bankers are refusing to renew loans in Mexico, and, in many cases, have recalled loans," Bejarano declared. "It is the general belief in Mexico that this financial boycott is being conducted at the direction of the State Department."

POLICE IN NEW SEARCH FOR BOY GONE SINCE MAY

Boston police were requested today to make a search for Edward J. Conrad, sixteen, of Orange, who disappeared last May, just before time for his graduation from High School. Acquaintances reported to the family they saw the boy on the Boston waterfront a few days ago. He is six feet tall, weighs about 150 pounds and has light, wavey hair. He wore tortoise shell glasses. His disappearance was caused, according to his mother, by a fear that because of difficulties at school he would not be graduated.

SNOWBOUND FILM STARS GET FOOD BY PLANE

Los Angeles, Feb. 16 (A.P.).—Renee Adoree and Robert Frazer, with about fifty other motion picture players under the direction of Lynn Reynolds, are snowed in and isolated at Mammoth, in the high Sierras, and are receiving food and other supplies by airplane from the Universal Pictures plant near here. Mammoth is northeast of Huntington Lake.

UNITARIANS ENDORSE COOLIDGE ARMS PLAN

At a meeting of the Unitarian Ministers' Monday Club in Bulfinch Place Church, a resolution was adopted congratulating President Coolidge on his proposal for a further reduction of armament and recommending that the State Department accept the principle of practical arbitration in the Mexican controversy.

RADCLIFFE GIRLS HOLD TEA FOR PROFESSORS

A tea for the professors of the Romance Language Department was given today at Radcliffe in Agassiz Living Room. This is the second of the series of professors' teas, given in order that students may have a chance to meet their instructors and wives socially. Among those present were Professor and Mrs. Charles Grandgent, Mrs. Irving Babbett, Professor and Mrs. C. H. C. Wright, Dr. and Mrs. F. W. C. Lieder, and Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Burkhardt.

Mary Sears, '27, of Wayland, had charge of the teas. The pourers were Winnifred Davis, '27, of New Haven, Conn., Constance Grant, '27, of Southbridge, Gayle Sanders, '27, of Wakefield, and Helen MacNabb, '27, of Cambridge.

CHINESE SPURN U. S. 'NEUTRAL ZONE' PLAN

Shanghai Feb. 16 (A.P.).—The proposal of American Secretary of State Kellogg for exempting Shanghai from the war area in the present struggle between north and south came to naught today when the commissioner of foreign affairs of this (Kiangsu) province issued a statement in the name of Marshal Sun Chuan-Fang, Shanghai, declining to accept it.

Officials of the Cantonese government, whose military forces also were given a copy of Mr. Kellogg's proposals, previously had indicated their disapproval of the plan.

"We can only regard the report of any foreign power to place limitations on the Kiangsu forces as intervention in favor of the enemy," says the statement issued in Marshal Sun's note.

The statement adds that the proposal "undoubtedly was inspired by a sincere desire to help China," but shows Mr. Kellogg "had not been fully advised regarding conditions here."

Chinese "Christian General" Heads New War Drive

Shanghai, Feb. 16 (A.P.).—A comeback by Feng Yu-Hsiang, "the Christian general," was advanced today as one of the reasons behind the hasty push of Manchurian troops into Northern Honan province. Feng is potential ally of the now hard pressed Cantonese forces.

Japanese sources reported Feng, head of the wandering Kuominchon or National People's army, which was forced out of Peking last Spring by Marshals Chang Tso-Lin and Wu Pei-Fu, has massed 120,000 men behind Sianfu, and Tungwan preparatory to resuming his drive on Honan, which was stopped last December. Sinagu and Tungkwan are in Shensi province, just east of Honan. Honan now is occupied by allied northern troops which are planning a drive against the Cantonese.

SPEEDY TRIAL FOR YOUTH DRIVEN TO SLAY BY JAZZ

Conneaut, O., Feb. 16 (A.P.).—First degree murder indictments against Floyd Hewitt, 16, confessed slayer of Mrs. Frederick Brown, 27 and her 5-year-old son, Frederick, Jr., were planned by authorities today following the youth's admission that he clubbed his victims to death with a baseball bat when Mrs. Brown repulsed his advances. A grand jury will be summoned at once and the youth will be brought to trial as soon as indictments are returned. The boy blamed a jazz tune for his acts, declaring the music made him "feel funny inside."

MOTHER AND DAUGHTER ARE HELD IN GEM THEFT

Mother and daughter were arraigned in Chelsea district court today charged with the larceny of $3,000 worth of jewelry from the home of a Chelsea resident where Mrs. Kathleen King, the mother, had recently worked as a trained nurse. Saugus police uncovered the trail to the stolen diamonds when called in to Mrs. King's home to settle a dispute with her daughter, Mrs. Anna Clark. Diamonds valued at $1,500 have been recovered. The women were held in $2,000 for a hearing Monday.

PARENTS CAST OFF BOY HELD FOR SLAYING

Saturday night, Michael was sent upstairs from the living room by his father for a bottle of ink. He told reporters today he did not go at once and his father slapped him.

"It made me mad and I decided to run away."

Michael went, taking the gun, a 38-calibre revolver, with him.

Sunday he spent with a boy pal, and at the movies. Monday he was hungry. Michael thought back two years to a movie he had seen of a hungry man holding up a shopkeeper and demanding money for food.

Fate took him to Marcus Gold's leather goods store. Michael asked to see a belt. Gold turned to get one from a box, and Michael shot him.

SIX DAYS' FOG IN ENGLAND CAUSES $20,000,000 LOSS

London, Feb. 16 (I.N.S.).—With England still fog-bound after six consecutive days, it was estimated today that transportation companies and business houses, hotels, restaurants and theatres have suffered losses of $20,000,000 as the result.

This constitutes the longest fog in a quarter of a century. Hundreds of vessels were still marooned today in the English Channel, in the Thames and in South of England ports. Another railroad accident at the Liverpool street station killed one man.

GOV. TRUMBULL TO MAKE OWN LEGISLATIVE PLEA

Hartford, Ct., Feb. 16 (A.P.).—Governor John H. Trumbull intends to do something on April 12 that no other governor of Connecticut has done, so far as legislative records show, and that is to appear at a legislative committee hearing in favor of one of his inaugural recommendations.

He suggested a change in the time of legislative sessions and as this would require a constitutional amendment the governor will speak in support of his plan.

Nine Die in Indore Riot

The Midnight Message by MARTEN CUMBERLAND and B. U. SHANN

The Thrill of Love and Millions Abounds in Every Chapter

WHAT HAS HAPPENED SO FAR

Luke Jefferies, walking disconsolately along a London street is asked by Mary Vickers to come into her father's house. The father is dying and seeks someone to whom he can entrust a mission. He explains that Abraham Steel, an old friend, has discovered an efficient substitute for petrol. Agents of a powerful oil syndicate are seeking the formula. Vickers has tried to protect Steel. He offers Jefferies a big reward if he will take his place. As he dies, he warns him against Monsieur Carnifex, whom he brands as a traitor. Jefferies, as he is leaving the house, sees Carnifex. Later he meets Mary at lunch with Madge Aldhouse, with whom she has gone to live, and Jack Enderby, Madge's brother. Carnifex joins them. In order to elude him and see Steel secretly Jefferies and Mary plan a night trip in Enderby's car.

(NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY)

CHAPTER III.

At the theatre Jefferies sank back in his seat with a profound sense of enjoyment.

Presently his attention was in some way attracted to a man who had unobtrusively entered the theatre and taken his seat but two stalls away from where Jefferies was sitting. This man had a bald head and a black trimmed beard. Perhaps it was his foreign appearance which made Jefferies look twice at him.

At intermission Jefferies went out to the bar. On his return he found the black-bearded man occupying the seat next him.

The second act of the play had been in progress only a few minutes when Jefferies felt a hand lightly tapping his knee.

He looked down and saw that a slip of paper was held in the hand which had tapped him. He took it, and, holding it in the light, he read the message written thereon:

"I, too, know something about Abraham Steel. I would like to talk to you."

The message was unsigned.

"Say, stranger," he said, with an American drawl, "made a mistake, haven't you?"

"That bluff won't work, my friend," came the suave reply, softly. "You're a sensible man, I take it. Whatever the other party offered you, you can have double that sum in spot cash right away. Take my tip—you'll be well out of this business."

"You annoy me," drawled Jefferies, "but I'll hear what you have to say to me."

He led the way to the street.

"Make it short," he said, confronting his man, over whom he towered by several inches.

"What was their offer?"

"I haven't the ghose of a notion what you're driving at."

"Care to come for a taxi ride with me? I'll take you to a man who'll talk straighter."

"Got no time." Jefferies signalled to a passing taxi. "You've spoilt my enjoyment of a good show," he said. "You ought to take some man," he said. He walked quickly down the steps to the taxi.

"Drive like the devil!" he ordered the driver, and slipped a banknote into his hand. In a flash he had opened the door and jumped inside. The taxi shot away with a rush and Jefferies leaned back and wiped the sweat from his face.

CROWDS HEAR PLEA TO ABOLISH CHAIR

Channel Conqueror ~ Shows Boston ~ How She Keeps Fit

A DAILY STUNT

Mlle Gade Corson, first mother to swim the English Channel, is at the Bowdoin Square Theatre this week. Daily she tosses the medicine ball to keep her arms in good condition. She considers this an ideal exercise.

6 BILLS TO END DEATH PENALTY

Notables Address Legislative Hearing and Speakers Cite Miscarriages of Justice

Before a crowd that overflowed into the corridors, the joint legislative committee on the judiciary today heard arguments from prominent men and women in favor of abolishing capital punishment in Massachusetts.

Bills calling for abolition of the death penalty were presented by Senator James J. Mulvey, Representatives C. F. Nelson Pratt, James J. Twohig, Leo M. Birmingham, James H. Brennan and Wendell P. Thore.

Among speakers in favor of one or more measures was Mrs. Florence G. Spooner, pioneer advocate of abolition of capital punishment.

Other speakers included Lewis E. Lawes, warden of Sing Sing prison; Arthur Garfield Hays of New York, associate of Clarence Darrow in the famous Bryan evolution proceedings; Frederick L. Hoffman, consulting engineer of the Prudential Life Insurance Company, and Dr. George W. Kirchwey of New York.

CRIME AGAINST HUMANITY.

Representative Pratt, who is leading the legislative forces in the fight for abolition, today declared that the death penalty has failed as a deterrent to crime, is an outworn vestige and should be replaced by life imprisonment until such a time as a more perfect application of the principle of individualization to criminals can be possible.

Representative Pratt said:

"Human life is held too sacred to be taken even when the guilt on the part of the offender is certain; but when there is no guilt at all, the taking of it becomes a crime against humanity. This has been urged in fact, as the final and conclusive argument which alone condemns the death penalty as an unjustifiable institution.

"Witness the case of a young man in California who was convicted upon circumstantial evidence of the murder of his sweetheart in a church tower. He suffered the death penalty and a year later the pastor of the church confessed he was the murderer.

JURY HAS RESPONSIBILITY.

"It is easy for a legislature considering crime in the abstract to decree that he who deliberately takes human life shall forfeit his own, but it is not so easy for a jury of twelve men to watch a prisoner for days—perhaps feel a certain compassion for him—to take the same view as the legislature. The responsibility rests entirely upon the jury.

"Should the pardon law be repealed, that power be placed in the hands of a board from the judiciary, the release of condemned men on sentimental grounds be stopped, and instead they be placed in confinement for life—real life and not nominal life—the death penalty brigade would lose half its following.

"Clarence Darrow says: 'We teach people to kill and the State is the one that teaches them. If a State wishes that its citizens respect human life, then the State should stop killing them.'"

Prince Eddie Sets New Smoking Fad for Dance Parties

London, Feb. 16 (A.P.).—The Prince of Wales is responsible for another fashion—the "puff-between-dances" cigarette.

When he complained the ordinary cigarettes were too much for a few puffs between dances, someone designed a midget cigarette case for him, holding about ten half-size smokes.

The Prince liked the idea so well that he immediately ordered a supply of small cigarettes, and now all the young men of Mayfair are doing the same.

Nab Four in Beer Raid

Albany, Feb. 16 (I.N.S.).—Two prohibition agents early today arrested four men out of a crowd of thirty who were unloading "good beer" from a freight car. The dry agents seized three motor trucks and 120 half-barrels of "beer."

MABEL SHOWS SLIGHT GAIN

Santa Monica, Cal., Feb. 16 (I.N.S.)—Although Mabel Normand, film actress, suffering from a severe attack of pneumonia, was slightly improved today, her condition was still critical, it was said at the Santa Monica Hospital, where she was removed from her Beverly Hills home.

Miss Normand's temperature dropped from 103 degrees to 102 over night, it was learned, and she managed to secure several hours' sleep.

Drs. George K. Dazey and H. Clifford Loos, who are attending the actress, declared they had high hopes she would recover.

A thorough X-ray examination of the patient was to be made today for the purpose of determining whether or not her illness is likely to be marked by difficult complications.

BARS LETTERS IN WARD SUIT

New York, Feb. 16 (A.P.).—Alleged blackmail letters received by Walter S. Ward, son of the millionaire baking magnate, will not be admitted as evidence in the suit for $72,000 against him brought by Elbridge G. Peters for the killing of his son, Clarence, in May, 1922.

This was decided at the second day of the trial today when Judge Anderson upheld the objection of Peters' counsel.

Among the others who testified today, all of whom testified at the murder trial in September, 1923, at which Ward was acquitted of the murder of Peters on the ground of self-defence, were Chief of Police Frank Cody of New Rochelle, Coroner Edward F. Fitzgerald of Westchester County and Dr. Henry J. Vier of the staff of the White Plains Hospital.

Chief Cody testified he had given Ward a 28-calibre automatic revolver five or six months before the killing of Peters and had seen Ward shooting at a target.

Coroner Fitzgerald testified as to Ward's shooting ability and Dr. Vier as to the nature of the wound from which Peters died.

Baldwin Letters to Be Kept Secret Fifty Years

New Haven, Feb. 16 (A.P.).—Fifty years from now a locked, sealed steel container containing the journals which the late Judge Simeon E. Baldwin, former Governor of Connecticut, kept for nearly sixty years, will be opened and their contents made public.

The container has been given into the custody of the New Haven Colony Historical Society in accordance with the terms of Judge Baldwin's will.

A letter written in 1910 requests that the letters be kept unread for this length of time because of their intimate nature.

RAIN AND WARM WAVE COMING

An extensive area of low barometric pressure drifting eastward early today assures Greater Boston of a rise in temperature tonight and tomorrow, according to the local weatherman.

There is a threat of rain late tonight accompanying the predicted warmth judging by reports of precipitation from those sections in the central valleys over which the low pressure has already passed.

Forecast for Boston and vicinity: Partly cloudy and warmer tonight and Thursday, possibly with light rain late tonight; fresh to strong south and southwest winds.

Beautify the room with a new rug which you will find listed in today's Classified Ads. Classification 110.

LITA EAGER TO RETURN 'HOME'

Los Angeles, Feb. 16 (A.P.).—Lita Grey Chaplin, who left the home of her screen star husband, Charlie Chaplin, here last November with the declaration that she never would go back, recanted today and made ready to return to the 40 room mansion because she is "tired of living on borrowed money."

Mrs. Chaplin, who yesterday received permission of the courts to reoccupy the Chaplin residence, will remain there with her two babies pending decision of the divorce case she has filed. If she collects temporary alimony, which to date has not been forthcoming in spite of the appointment of receivers for Chaplin's property in California, she will receive only $3,000 a month instead of the $4,000 monthly award previously allowed.

OF
DEPENDABILITY

It was Dodge Brothers distinction, twelve years ago, to create a more dependable car in its price class than previously had been known.

This enviable leadership Dodge Brothers have rigidly maintained.

Wherever difficult conditions try the souls of men and the stamina of motor cars, you will find Dodge Brothers product foremost in favor.

You will find also that six, eight and even ten years of service are not exceptional for the car; that frequently it delivers mileage running well into six figures; and that maintenance cost is remarkably low throughout its long and useful life.

These facts powerfully witness Dodge Brothers success in constantly bettering a product that was exceptional even at the start.

RADIO DIALOG

by

C. WILLIAM RADOS

Last night was again such a good night that we decided to listen in quite late in an attempt to hear some real long distance. But even then the distant stations were no more distant than at any other time of night, which is another way of saying that still so many stations were on we found all our friends of earlier hours.

To begin with, we tuned in a strong, steady, powerful signal down near where Baltimore comes in and said, "Who might this be?" Then the music stopped and the announcer said, this is WIOD, Miami Beach," and drawled out the "nex numba." The "nex numba" was from somebody's cocoanut grove. Cocoanuts! and we have to wade through slush. But the music was good and the Southern station came through well with no heterodyning.

WCX, from Detroit, was another station coming in well but on the far end of the wavelengths available. As usually this station is smothered with other signals, it is not heard on our set often.

WPG, Atlantic City; WPCH, New York City; WBZ, Springfield; WAAM, Newark; WBAL, Baltimore, and WMAK, Buffalo, were all heard earlier in the evening at a respectable time.

Of this group of strong stations only one was left when we hopefully listened later for something distant. Like the woman who asked the Boston radio salesman what was the best way to hear her brother in San Francisco and was told to move to S. F.—but that's another story.

Anyway, floating over the air was good last night and we thoroughly enjoyed it. We have not heard the other coast for many months but when YOU do, don't fail to write and if enough DXers join, a contest will be conducted.

Nearer home last night was the Eveready hour, a surprise and variety from which we have not fully recovered. It certainly shows that something different can be put over if the program directors are able—as they were in this case.

Richard Dix, Mary Bryant, and Graham MacNamee were all excited in the making of a moving picture film, "Knockout Riley." To listen to MacNamee telling the fans of the ringside combat it sounded as if all the Rileys, some Kelleys, and a few Cohens or two had been knocked out! But it all ended correctly when the fadeout came.

The Springfield Symphony Orchestra, ably directed by Arthur Turner gave an interesting hour of high-class music.

DODGE SALES INCREASE

"Analysis of new car registrations for the full year of 1926 reveals that Dodge Brothers vehicles rank first in point of increased sales, both in passenger car and truck fields," declared C. B. Henshaw of the Henshaw Motor Company today.

"In spite of increased facilities for manufacturing," he said, "local dealers were hard put to keep supply up to demand.

"Since 1914, when Dodge Brothers created a more dependable car in its price class than previously had been known, sales have exceeded supply and registrations have consequently shown a remarkable increase.

"Between the first car delivered here and the present type there are vast differences, and although there have been no yearly model changes, so many improvements have been made that today the engine is practically vibrationless and the car rides as comfortably as cars costing four and five times its price.

"Six, eight and even ten years of service are not exceptional for Dodge Brothers cars in the hands of a single owner; indeed several cars of 1915 production are still registered and running, and those who follow automotive affairs most closely are therefore not surprised that vehicles of this make should top the list of registrations each year."

OLDSMOBILE'S NEW RECORD

"First of the five hundred" is the title given to an Oldsmobile roadster, now twenty years old, which is still in service at Suva in the Fiji Islands. It is said that this was the first automobile to travel the roads there, and at the time was almost a god among the natives.

Harry Dunn, general manager of the Boston Oldsmobile Company, relates a description of the car and its habitat as given to him by an official of a steamship company.

"The roadster has been driven by an old couple for many years. The owner takes very good care of the car, covering the hood at nights, and there is no doubt but that it will be good for years.

"This was the first car in Suva, and the total number of cars now in Fiji is about 500. American cars are the most popular, not many English cars being in use.

"The roads in Fiji are very good and the drives through the native villages, sugar fields and other points of interest afford a closeup view of the life of the island."

FLINT PUTS OUT 13 NEW STYLES IN 1927 MODELS

The Flint division, Durant Motors, Inc., is producing 13 different styles for 1927, mounted on three chassis—the 6-80, 6-60 and Junior.

Model 80 has an 80 b. h. p. motor, heavily reinforced frame, four-wheel hydraulic brakes and many other mechanical features which cause it to rank high among cars in its price class.

Its Continental L-head six cylinder engine is 3⅝ by 5, displacement 263 cubic inches. The crankshaft has seven bearings. Force-feed lubricating system, impeller type pump, DeJon electrical system, Stromberg carburetor, vacuum tank and gasoline filter are among the features.

The 6-60 engine is 3¼ by 4⅝ and develops 56.5 b. h. p. at 2,600 r. p. m. It also has a seven bearing crankshaft. Electrical equipment is Auto-Lite. The steering gear, as in the 6-80, is a Ross-Warner type. The wheelbase is 115 inches. Lockheed brakes are part of the equipment, which follows that of the larger car pretty closely.

In the Junior the engine is 2¾ by 4¼, giving 40 b. h. p. at 2,600 r. p. m. The car resembles the 6-60 mechanically, but is built smaller, on a wheelbase of 110 inches.

Irving Clark, sales manager of the Wills-Carson-Bennett Company No. 790 Commonwealth avenue, distributors for Flint and also Star automobiles, reports unusual interest in both lines. Actual sales, states Mr. Clark, are far in excess of 1926.

NEWEST WHIPPET, THE LANDAU

NEW MODELS IN WHIPPETS OUT

Willys-Overland offers two new models on the chassis of the Whippet: a sport roadster and a Landau Six, Fred Rees, sales manager of the Boston Overland Company announced today.

In the roadster the makers adhere closely to the general streamline of the Whippet group, but several innovations are offered, among them a rumble seat for two.

Interior appointments are in keeping with the modern idea. The upholstering is of grey leather material. This blends with the body color scheme of Corson green below a red striping and Champlin green above.

As on all Whippets, four-wheel brakes are standard equipment, this being one of the safety features of this group of cars stressed by the makers. The radiator shell is of nickel and the bullet headlamps also have nickeled shells supported by a strong tie-rod.

FEWER MAKERS ENTERED IN BIG AUTOMOBILE SHOW

The 1927 national automobile shows in Chicago and New York perhaps more decidedly than ever before, showed the increasing tendency toward a more careful analysis of values by the public, according to E. L. Cord, president of the Auburn Automobile Company.

He points out that while a few years ago more than 100 manufacturers were represented at the shows, this year only 45 makers displayed models. This is direct evidence of the keen competition in the industry in his opinion.

"I could not help but note the radical change which has made itself felt in the buying field while I viewed the show," Cord stated. "Never before has the public been so exacting as to its demands for the value in motor products. Little if any heed is paid to radical body changes, extreme color combinations or drastic price reductions. What the public wants is value in motor cars and price is a second thought.

NEW CHRYSLER LINE ON DISPLAY TODAY

An advanced Spring showing of the complete line of the New Imperial 80 Chrysler line will begin today and continue until Saturday evening at the salesrooms of the C. E. Fay Company on Commonwealth avenue. It will be open day and evening.

Among the cars to be featured will be the standard Imperial 80 Sedan, a five-passenger model selling at the lowest price ever asked for a Chrysler 80 model. There will be models of the new custom built town Brougham. These bodies are built by Fleetwood.

Boston Athletes Two From Somerville After Big Jobs

BOSTON WILL HAVE HEART INTEREST IN SOUTH

BOSTON fans always are interested in the doings of their ball clubs in the South, but the Spring antics will have particular importance this year. For two Boston kids are going to be down where the warm breezes blow, trying to break into the large game.

[illegible] me from Somerville, which is unusual enough for [illegible] d one will be with each Boston club, than which nothing could be fairer. Danny McFayden, bespectacled pitcher, will try out under Bill Carrigan, who knows more about making hurlers than anybody we can name. Bill's staffs in the old days were famous and he taught them himself.

Nick Flatley

Danny goes to the big test equipped with a lot of experience and the fast ball that all young pitchers need. He has a curve and control, but the fast one is the most important asset that the smart boys look for in beginners. Danny has that. So he has a chance.

Frank Hogan, catcher, who goes South with the Braves tonight, has all the earmarks of a big league star. He's as raw as wood alcohol yet, but that is natural. Frank is as big as several trucks, and made a short appearance at the Wigwam last Fall. He busted several onions up against the barriers and immediately won himself a new contract.

Young Mister Hogan weighs two hundred or more pounds He was an outfielder in high school, but he didn't have major league speed. So the Braves, when they grabbed him a year ago, decided to should be a catcher. He was sent to Lynn, and by the end of the campaign was as good as most of the receivers in that circuit. And how he hit that apple.

With one year's catching back of him, he's considered good enough for a serious tryout.

FRIDAY SCRAP WILL SET NEW MONEY RECORDS

THERE's a [illegible] about the action of the New York Boxing Commission [illegible] Maloney Friday [illegible] ring. Which it doesn't.

The [illegible] sharpshooter has never gone over that mark in his life. After three months in the great open spaces recently, which he took [illegible] he came back weighing just 150. He seemed to have reached the top as far as poundage goes.

Jack will be well under 175 when he scales for Maloney. That weight matter is the one obstacle that may knock the French Canadian away from the title. If one of the big boys prove to be really good, Jack's class will not help him.

He will be giving South Boston James at least twenty pounds Friday. If the fight is [illegible] alone, and Jimmy is in trim, his beef will be a great help. No little [illegible] can lick a [illegible] good man, in any ring.

This war, in the matter of gate, will cross all indoor records. It will [illegible] a few [illegible] records [illegible]. There always has been plenty of [illegible] in New York and in the last few days a lot of Maloney [illegible] trained as if he meant it, and lots of the boys who [illegible] watched him give him a very fine chance in the latest million dollar fight.

THE Sharkey-McTigue scrap will sell out, also. When the winner of the two impending [illegible] meet, the rush of customers will be more than astounding. That get together will draw as much as any championship ever could.

Big league baseball stars like Walter Johnson [illegible] Ty Cobb, George [illegible] and others cannot afford to be laid up with aches, pains, swollen [illegible] or stiffness a single day, so they must use the best remedy money can buy.

The liniment they use out at the ball parks works like lightning and in a few [illegible] aches, pains, stiffness or swollen joints due to strains, rheumatic troubles, [illegible] neuralgia, etc. A thousand times [illegible] this wonderful liniment [illegible] work in big leagues, professional and amateur baseball circles, and [illegible] the liniment they use is so mild it would not harm a baby's skin and never blisters no matter how much you rub it in or bandage it up.

The liniment is named after the famous trainer, Mike Martin, the man who for years was trainer of the New York "Yankees," Cincinnati "Reds," Columbia University, etc., and who now is trainer of Washington's 1924-25 American League champion baseball club.

It is called Mike Martin's Liniment. Local druggists are featuring it. Any person suffering with aches, pains, lame back, rheumatism, swollen joints, stiffness, neuralgia or neuritis, should get a bottle. It is pleasant to use, never stains, and by rubbing a little into the sore, stiff, achy parts you get almost magic relief.

Ball players often catch cold, get sore or bangled up and come to the ball park hardly able to walk, yet out they come from a good rub with Mike Martin's Liniment, as [illegible] full of pep and ginger, as anybody could wish. Watch them scamper and prance in rain or shine. You'd never dream they ever had an ache or pain in their lives. Mike Martin, by making this liniment available to the general public in drug stores, is doing a great thing for those who suffer. If reader lives out of town and druggist hasn't it, write Mike Martin, Ball Park, Washington, D. C., and he will send a large size bottle with full directions, parcel post, for $1.00. All good druggists sell smaller trial size bottles for a few cents.

The Baked Taste Tells

A baked potato tastes like nothing else but a baked potato. Same way with beans. Beans that are really baked taste like nothing else but baked beans. Slow, careful baking in the dry heat of real ovens imparts a distinctive baked flavor.

It is this distinctive baked flavor that makes Heinz Oven-Baked Beans taste so good. They are baked tender, baked mealy, baked golden brown, baked good to eat.

Heinz Beans are labeled "Oven-Baked" because they are baked in real ovens.

WOMEN WITH BOBBED HAIR VERY EASILY GET RID OF GRAY HAIRS

With Color Glands Normal Nature Keeps Hair Natural Shade

SENSIBLE ADVICE TO WOMEN TURNING GRAY

Everyone knows if their color glands and hair roots are active and normal they will continue indefinitely to have rich, natural colored hair entirely free of gray, or off-colored locks, so why use dyes or tints?

A doctor several years ago asked himself this question: "If with certain medicines I can stimulate my patient's other organs, why not rub a stimulating tonic into the scalp that will revive, strengthen and tone up these inactive glands so that nature in her own inimitable way will resume putting plenty of pigment into the hair tubes? Surely the hair will then again resume its original shade and color regardless of the users age or previous condition of their hair."

REMARKABLE DISCOVERY

He [illegible] that could be [illegible] to hair or scalp. Just [illegible] tonic that [illegible] after [illegible] he wanted a tonic that would [illegible] hair [illegible] glands.

Under the name of Lea's Hair Tonic anyone may now purchase [illegible]

[illegible] scalp. Once [illegible] for a week or two and watch results.

Men and women in all walks of life have been amazed at the younger appearance [illegible] with the disappearance of gray hairs from their head. [illegible] need never become gray if they keep the scalp and roots toned up with an occasional massage with Lea's Hair Tonic.

If any reader desires to try a bottle of Lea's Hair Tonic on the maker's absolute guarantee of satisfaction or money back they should purchase a bottle at the drug store or [illegible] to this advertisement and send with name and address plainly written to Lea's Tonic Co., Brentwood, Md. $1 bottles parcels post anywhere with full directions.

No one need have gray or off-colored hair any more.

MEDBURY SAYS---

By JOHN P. MEDBURY

CONTRACTORS are spending millions of dollars on new apartment houses, and in most of them the rooms are so small that a woman has to go out in the hall to change her mind.

THE average apartment is plenty big enough for a couple, provided one of them doesn't come home.

THEY'RE just the right size for a man and his wife who are separated.

IT'S roomy enough as long as they are divorced.

BUT if there was ever a reconciliation they'd have to move.

ONE man rented an apartment the other day where they use the telephone booth for a lobby.

WHENEVER he has guests he has to go to bed in the dumb-waiter.

HE'S slept at every floor in the building.

THE superintendent got sore at him the last time and kept pulling him up and down all night.

MOST buildings use every inch of space. In some of them there isn't even any room left for a mortgage.

ONE fellow sued the landlord the other day. He claimed the walls were so thin the neighbors could hear him beating his wife.

HE loved her so much he didn't want to humiliate her.

THE judge told him he'de either have to quit striking her or move to a better building.

HE finally compromised by putting ear muffs on the neighbors.

THERE'S a man on Riverside Drive who lives in such a tiny apartment that the only kind of sickness he's got room for is the smallpox.

HE'S scared to death that he'll get the mumps and have to move.

HE got the swelled head one night had to sleep in the lobby.

THEY'RE building apartments so small nowadays that it won't be long before tenants will start going into the subway to relax.

THE MEDITATIONS OF A WIFE---BY HELEN ROWLAND

"THE kind of a girl that men forget" is the one who calls them up on the telephone next morning and reminds them of all the foolish promises they made the night before.

A "good line" is the scientific masculine device for saying a whole lot—and promising nothing.

When a man's illusions become threadbare he discards them as lightly as he would a frayed collar; but a woman always attempts to darn hers up and goes through life with patches on her soul.

One of the things for which a modern woman marries is the comfort of being able to stop banting and to let her hair go back to its natural color.

A man is not beginning to be middle-aged until he prefers a good appetite next morning to a good time the night before.

Any nice-looking Young Thing can make a man WANT to kiss her; but it requires a mistress of diplomacy, art, and irristible fascination to make him want to kiss her AGAIN, these days.

Solomon was the world's greatest optimist! What other man ever let the hope of finding a Perfect Wife triumph over experience, seven hundred times?

The average woman's greatest disappointment is to marry her ardent admirer and discover afterward that she has tied herself to a life critic.

* * *

Alas, so many husbands and wives appear to love each other just like Southern California and Northern California!

Sure of Himself Now!

So Clean Inside, No Fear of Perspiration Offense, However Over-Heated

"ANYTHING that gets results, was all the thought I ever gave to laxatives. In those days my perspiration was so acid, it used to rot my clothes. Then a doctor tipped me off to those wonderful little sweeteners—

CASCARETS

Once a person realizes the wonderful properties in cascara, no other laxative in the market would ever be considered.

It's no trick to "clean out the bowels." Dozens of things will do that. But a little natural cascara purifies the system clear through. Cleanses even the pores of your skin. Renders perspiration as inoffensive as so much dew! The old-fashioned way was "salts." They get action, but they take the mucous membrane along with the waste matter! Mineral oils are gentler, but they leave the bowels with a film of poisons for the blood to carry off through the pores. But when you cascarize the system, you get rid of all the poisons by normal muscular action of the bowels.

If you have the habit of taking medicine for constipation, or even for auto-intoxication, stop it. For a candy cascaret is a delightful form in which to take cascara; children love them, and the taste tempts most grown-ups to have "more."

And what a comfort to know you are in that clean, wholesome condition that does away with any need of deodorants, even in warmest weather! Try a cascaret tonight—see how you feel next day, and for days after! With the skin fresh and fragrant. All druggists, 10c and 25c.

This home-made remedy is a wonder for quick results. Easily and cheaply made.

Here is a home-made syrup which millions of people have found to be the most dependable means of breaking up stubborn coughs. It is cheap and simple, but very prompt in action. Under its healing, soothing influence, chest soreness goes, phlegm loosens, breathing becomes easier, tickling in throat stops and you get a good night's restful sleep. The usual throat and chest colds are conquered by it in 24 hours or less. Nothing better for bronchitis, hoarseness, throat tickle, or bronchial asthma.

To make this splendid cough syrup, pour 2½ ounces of Pinex into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup and shake thoroughly. If you prefer, use clarified honey. Either way, you get a full pint—a family supply—of much better cough syrup, than you could buy ready-made for three times the money. Keeps perfectly and tastes good.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract and palatable guaiacol, known the world over for its prompt healing effect upon the membranes.

To avoid disappointment ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with directions. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Child Gets Sick, Cross, Feverish if Constipated

Look at tongue! Then give fruity laxative for stomach, bowels

"California Fig Syrup" can't harm children and they love it

Mother! Your child isn't naturally cross and peevish. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign the little stomach, liver and bowels need a cleansing at once.

When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, remember, a gentle liver and bowel cleansing should always be the first treatment given.

Nothing equals "California Fig Syrup" for children's ills; give a teaspoonful, and in a few hours all the foul waste, sour bile and fermenting food which is clogged in the bowels passes out of the system, and you have a well and playful child again. All children love this harmless, delicious, "fruity laxative," and it never fails to effect a good "inside cleansing." Directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups are plainly on the bottle.

Keep it handy in your home. A little given today saves a sick child tomorrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Fig Syrup," then see that it is made by "The California Fig Syrup Company."

'Goods Have to be Sold;' How to Handle Salesmen

By B. C. FORBES

NEW YORK, Feb. 16—"Goods are not being bought. They have to be sold."

So remarked a manufacturer yesterday.

This means that salesmen are going to be the most important factors in business this year.

HOW SHOULD salesmen be handled to get from them the best results?

Some companies have earned a reputation for developing salesmen [illegible]. Other companies haven't. My [illegible] has been that the best salesmen are produced by concerns that attach the most importance to the way salesmen [illegible] case of the [illegible] managers [illegible] turn [illegible] back [illegible] stimulating [illegible] realize that [illegible] efforts are [illegible] headquarters, [illegible] noted and [illegible] that the whole attitude [illegible] is sympathetic, helpful, constructive.

B. C. Forbes

ONE OF THE best authorities in the world, Herbert N. Casson, gives the [illegible] points on salesmen, how they should handle [illegible] and how they should be handled.

If a traveling salesman's heart is not stout, it will very soon be broken—that's a truth that every company should bear in mind. Many a salesman suffers a daily martyrdom for the reason that he has not strengthened himself for his job. Often a [illegible] salesman can keep on with his pace and trudge about as [illegible]. He is no longer a salesman. He is only a spiritless [illegible], who walks from door to door and says: "Nothing for me today, I suppose?"

THE UNDENIABLE FACT is that a salesman's job is a very lonely and depressing one, unless he takes himself in hand and uses a great deal of self-control. As anyone can see [illegible] in the lobby of any hotel in the evening, many salesmen are in a slough of despondency.

This is natural enough. He is away from home for weeks at a stretch. He is bundled about on trains and in hotels. He is a Robinson Crusoe. He has no co-workers. He is usually among strangers from Monday morning until Saturday noon. He is out on the firing line, not back at the base. He knows nothing of the pleasures of team play.

He is constantly facing an indifferent or unfriendly public, and pushing himself in where he was not invited. He does his work without cooperation from anyone—without sympathy—without applause—often without a word of praise, even when he has done well.

NO ONE can face a dozen rebuffs in a day and keep smiling, unless he is stout-hearted. These rebuffs do not all come from the customers, either. Some of them come from the home office, and some of them come from his wife. Letters may make or break a man—home letters especially. Grumbling, peevish, worrying letters! Pages of self-pity and pathos and petulance!

How few wives of travelers realize that the one practical asset of a salesman is cheerfulness. To the wives who read this I would say: "If you are married to a traveling salesman, for Heaven's sake back him up. He has troubles you know nothing about, and unless you cheer him along he'll fail and you will be the cause of it."

THERE ARE some sales managers who wear spurs. They whip and worry their salesmen. Managers and wives both are apt to forget that a salesman must not have the heart taken out of him else he cannot sell goods. He needs cheery letters and good news and a jolly big banquet once a year, with the president of the company in the chair.

* * *

TIMIDITY, too, is a defect that must be overcome. Many a time, in my younger days, I have walked up and down past a door before I had the courage to go in. But that had to be overcome. A salesman cannot be thin-skinned. He must not take offence easily. A salesman must be a good loser. He must be able to take punishment. Win or lose he must keep on playing.

The point to remember is that a salesman must carry enough cheerfulness for two—his customer and himself.

The right type of salesman is not like a yacht blown by the wind, rather he is like a liner. He goes forward, wind or no wind, because he carries his own power within him. He sticks. He takes his job as a daily adventure that is far to be preferred to any safe, stay-at-home, routine job.

Stock Analysis

Commercial Solvents Corporation is engaged principally in the manufacture of butanol and other alcohol products which are widely used in the manufacture of celluloids, lacquers, films, patent leathers and automotive finishes.

During the five years which ended in 1925 net income averaged $412,314 annually. In 1925 sales of all products were more than double those of the previous year in volume.

In the first nine months of 1926, net income totalled $1,164,643, this sum being equal to $9.60 per share of Class B stock after allowing for six months' dividend requirements on the preferred and Class A stocks which were retired in July of last year.

At the time of last report the company was in a sound financial condition since it had current assets of $1,524,686 whereas current liabilities amounted to $493,725. There were no bank loans outstanding.

Dividends at the rate of 8 per cent per year were paid regularly on the first preferred stock from the time it was issued until its redemption in 1926. Initial dividends were paid on the Class A stock in 1922; in 1923 there was a $1 payment; in 1924 $7 per share was paid.

From that year until the issue was retired the annual rate was $4. A declaration of a quarterly dividend of $2 per share on the Class B stock in October, 1926, inaugurated distribution on that issue at the present rate of $8 per share per year.

EASTERN S. S. IS WATCHED BY TRADERS

By FRANK H. MELOON,

Eastern Steamship has been watched by traders on the Boston Stock Exchange for a reflection of the benefit it will derive from the [illegible] of the Cape Cod Canal. Passage of the bill by Congress without provision for raising cash purchase price was not as inspiring as it might have been in other days, but the request from President Coolidge to Congress for a deficiency appropriation of $1,500,000 to complete the $11,500,000 [illegible] provides a new basis for [illegible].

Stockholders in utility companies and others are awaiting with interest the outcome of the order introduced in Everett's aldermanic board calling for appointment of a commission to investigate the advisability of establishing a municipally-owned lighting plant. The city now gets its electricity from the Malden Electric Company. There are at least two types of municipal lighting plants, it should be noted. One merely buys current from some private company; the other actually produces electricity.

Those who drove, first Granite State, then Deering mowing machines back and forth over the cultivated sections of New England something more than a score of years ago could hardly have visualized the rise of agricultural machinery to stock market importance. The name of Deering has so long been associated with Chicago that rather few people know that Charles Deering, the farm machinery millionaire of International Harvester, who died last week, was born in Paris, Me., the great toy and sporting goods centre which I, for one, never visit without marveling at the vigor of its enterprise.

GAMBLING ORGY IS POSSIBLE, SAYS M'NEEL

A gambling orgy may develop in the stock market is the forecast offered today by McNeel's service.

In its latest survey of business and industrial conditions throughout the country, McNeel's says:

"The abundance of money and credit is a strong backlog in the business situation. It encourages new ventures, new undertakings, new construction, etc. It will undoubtedly continue to exert a strong stimulating influence. However, the buying power of a large section of the country has been somewhat curtailed through the decline in prices of farm products the last year.

"The deficit in building which created the boom the last two years has been pretty well made up, so that in the near future building operations, though certain to be large, are not likely to be of record-breaking proportions. Moreover falling prices for commodities indicate increased competition and prospects of generally lower industrial profits in the current year.

"It is probable, too, that credit, which was used widely to stimulate consumption as well as production of goods in 1926 and which was a considerable factor in keeping consumption of goods at a record high rate may not be used to so great an extent in this direction in the present year. These are not the factors of which business depressions are made, but they are factors which tend to make for some modification of optimism, in a country which is accustomed to consider business as 'good' only when all previous records of volume and profit are being broken."

ROCKEFELLER HOLDINGS IN RAILS LONG FOR SALE

Rockefeller holdings of Wheeling & Lake Erie and Western Maryland had been for sale for some time and purchase of them by Baltimore & Ohio, New York Central and Nickel Plate was not for the purpose of contesting or blocking L. F. Loree's consolidation plan, according to President Willard of Baltimore & Ohio. Pennsylvania Railroad was not interested in either Western Maryland or Wheeling & Lake Erie.

"When three roads acquired interest in Wheeling & Lake Erie and Western Maryland," Mr. Willard declared, "it represented another step in plan for Eastern railroad consolidation worked out some years ago by New York Central, Baltimore & Ohio and Nickel Plate and partly concurred in by Pennsylvania. Mr. Loree had two or three years in which to go and buy Wheeling & Lake Erie and Western Maryland if he wanted them." Baltimore & Ohio holdings in Western Maryland fall short of control so that under the purchase does not require action by Interstate Commerce Commission.

X-RAY
Examination, consultation, trial treatment and medicine absolutely free to all who come before Feb. 28th. The wonderful power of the X-Ray and mercury quartz lamp treatment is proved by the fact that they are accomplishing wonders in diseases of the stomach, [illegible], rheumatism, deafness, stomach, nerve and skin disease. No matter what your trouble may be, remember Daniel J. Walsh, M. D., 18 Boylston St. will make good the above offer.

STOMACH
MR. ARTHUR DELOREY, 31 WASHINGTON ST., WEYMOUTH, SAYS: "I spent twelve years in lumber camps and acquired a serious stomach trouble, eating the coarse food served in those camps. I had a good appetite, but after eating would be troubled with gas and pains for hours at a time. I have been treated by several doctors and at hospitals, but the treatments did not benefit me. I read of D. J. Walsh, M. D., and had him treat me. Now I feel fine."

PAIN
MISS ESTELLA BURNS, 417 MASSACHUSETTS AVE., BOSTON, SAYS: "I fell in a theatre while taking a dance and wrenched my knee cap. I was treated by a doctor in Cambridge, who did not help me. I read of Daniel J. Walsh, M. D., and his treatment promptly relieved the pain in my leg. I am so pleased with the results of Daniel J. Walsh's treatment that I am sending my friends to him for treatment."

SKIN
MRS. BEATRICE GEORGE, 314 SARATOGA ST., E. BOSTON, SAYS: "I have been troubled with a skin rash on my right shoulder for four years. I had been treated by a famous skin specialist who did not help me. The skin rash was spreading down my back and chest. I read of Daniel J. Walsh, and out of curiosity I went to Daniel J. Walsh, M. D., in an incredibly short time his new light treatment has cured the skin rash and it has not returned, although it has been a year since Daniel J. Walsh treated me."

NATIONAL POLICIES OF THE HEARSTNEWSPAPERS

1. An agreement of English-speaking peoples to preserve peace among themselves and promote the peace of the world.
2. A constitutional amendment to provide for the election of United States Senators in numbers proportionate to the population of each State, but no State to have less than two Senators. A reapportionment of Congressional representation immediately after every census, or in case of the failure of Congress so to act, to make the apportionment automatic at the end of the first Congressional session, the proportion of population for each representative in each case to be that of the existing Congress.
3. A separate Department of the Army, of the Navy and of the Air Forces, all united under a Secretary of National Defense.
4. Federal action to the limit of Federal Government powers to abolish illiteracy among the people of the United States, and the creation of a Secretary of Education.
5. Necessary measures to secure the election of Congress in November and its installation on the 1st of January following, and the inauguration of a President on the 1st of January immediately following his election in November.

You Will Fly Behind These

Or Behind Some Heads Like Them

PILOT AND FLYING ENGINEER OF A MODERN PASSENGER FLIER.

Some day in your travels you will look at two heads like this sitting in front of you, directing the flight of a giant airplane.

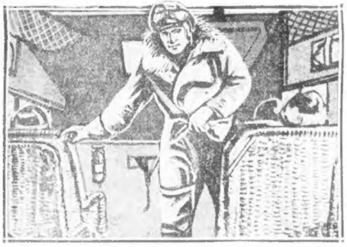
This is one of the flying ships of the "Royal British Airways Company."

The British, as you know, like the French, Germans, Russians, Japanese and Italians, are actually BUILDING airships and FLYING, doing the things that this country, THAT INVENTED THE AIRSHIP, hasn't brains or energy to do, for some mysterious reason.

Many a mile you will travel, if you are not now more than fifty years old, sitting behind trained airmen, like those in this picture. The man on the left is the pilot, steering the machine, attending to the machinery, watching the various signals, looking out ahead through the windshield that breaks the high wind created by the plane's swift flight.

He thinks of his airplane and machinery and nothing else.

The flying engineer on the right is responsible for anything that may go wrong with the engine; he is not merely a mechanic, but a man understanding everything about airplane construction. In addition, he exercises authority during flight.



THE "AIR ENGINEER" INSPECTS PASSENGERS

In the picture above you see the air engineer, having for a moment left his seat beside the pilot, looking through the passenger compartment to make sure that the rules are obeyed.

One very important rule is NO SMOKING.

And you may be sure that the passengers are careful to obey it, since a spark of fire in the wrong place might mean a drop of six to ten thousand feet.

Flying already has been brought to a high degree of perfection in foreign countries. The interesting thing is that Americans, THAT NEVER DO ANY FLYING AT HOME, are among the most numerous customers of the various European "airways" that fly between London, Paris and other cities. Over there such saving of time is as much a commonplace matter, of course, as it is for us in America to take a street car, subway or elevated railroad.

With us, slow as we are, flying will come eventually, and you will fly through the air two hundred miles an hour, in a straight line from the starting point to your destination, with men like those in this picture, and BETTER men, to assure you of your safety.

Entitled to a Decision

Boulder Dam Project Should Be Given Chance to Reach a Vote on Merit

Speaker Longworth revealed an intelligent perception of sound statesmanship when he agreed with Congressional supporters of the Swing-Johnson bill that the great constructive project at Boulder Dam, far and away the most important internal measure before this Congress, should no longer be denied its chance to reach a vote on merit.

He knows full well that the day which sees the completion of this project will mark the addition of untold billions to our national wealth. That a selfish private industry, like a dog in the manger, should undertake to say that the Congress shall not even vote upon the undertaking until a monopoly of Colorado River waterpower is confirmed in its hands is a challenge to the national authority which must make any admirer of Theodore Roosevelt writhe.

There is yet time in this session to bring Boulder Dam to an open decision. The attempt to deny this legislative right is unworthy of those responsible for it. Its success would strike a vicious blow at the spirit of American institutions.

JAPAN HAS MADE GREAT STRIDES

By DR. FRANK CRANE

THE death of the Emperor of Japan called universal attention to that remarkable country.

No country in the world perhaps has made so rapid progress during the last generation as Japan.

Taking into consideration the age of the Japanese Empire, the visit of Commodore Perry to that country, compelling Japan to open intercourse with the other nations, was very recent.

Previous to 1889 Japan was an absolute monarchy. It had been for centuries drilled into thinking monarchical ideas. Since 1889 it has had a Constitution.

The Emperor is still held to be sacred and inviolable and exercises the whole of the executive powers, but he is supposed to use this power with the advice and consent of the Cabinet Ministers.

Japan has a House of Peers and a House of Representatives. It is the home of the old-fashioned Shintoism and Buddhism, but yet religion is entirely free and Christians are at liberty to preach their gospel as much as they wish. English is required in all of the schools.

The United States has been recognized as Japan's best customer, as it takes about 45 per cent. of her exports and supplies about 30 per cent. of her imports.

It is only in 1852 that Commodore Perry opened that country to commerce, and since then the Japanese people have risen with remarkable rapidity to take their stand among civilized nations.

Of course their ideas and training are different from ours, but that is no sign that they are any worse. Japan has made great strides in educating her common people and in extending the franchise.

Only recently the news came that Baron Ryoichi Kujo, who is a brother of the Empress, is working as a poorly paid clerk and takes orders from everybody but the office boy in the institution, where he gets only $50 a month, in order, he claims, "to find out how the common people make a living." The Baron likes his job. He is a faithful worker and is always on time. One of the saving graces of the Japanese people is that they are fond of work.

Work and aristocracy hardly go together, as all noble orders since the foundation of the world have been orders of noble loafers.

Work and democracy will be found to progress hand in hand.

WORDS OF THE WISE MEN

Success has brought many to destruction. —Phaedrus.

All wickedness is weakness. —Milton.

Dost thou love life? Then do not squander time, for that is the stuff that life is made of. —Benjamin Franklin.

We all have sufficient strength to bear other people's troubles. —La Rochefoucauld.

BOSTON DAY BY DAY

TRAINING WITH MITS.

MISS GERTRUDE LEAHY of ARLINGTON, who holds a position in Registrar FRANK GOODWIN'S office, reads with interest the story of how CHARLOTTE SCHOEMMEL and MARTHA STAGER trained for the Catalina swim by using boxing gloves. MISS LEAHY can swim like a professional and occasionally uses boxing gloves to help keep in condition.

WRONG NUMBER CALLED.

It happened recently that the name of another GERTRUDE LEAHY, also of Arlington, was published in connection with an auto accident. REGISTRAR GOODWIN'S efficient helper was kept busy for a time answering telephone and other calls from friends who feared she had been badly hurt.

PHOTOGRAPHIC MIND.

Son of MATT DOYLE of sewing machine fame, ASSISTANT DISTRICT ATTORNEY FREDERICK T. DOYLE of Suffolk County is a valuable asset to DISTRICT ATTORNEY WILLIAM J. FOLEY because of his knowledge of human nature gleaned as presiding officer of many organizations, such as the Rose Croix Knights of Columbus Building Association of Roxbury. FREDDIE has what lawyers call a PHOTOGRAPHIC MIND and knows the tricks and traps of the clever criminal prosecutor.

RECIPE.

JOHN S. McGRATH of DORCHESTER, who recently resigned from the building department at City Hall, paid a visit to his old friends in School street the other day. JOHN was asked his opinion as to a man's prospects in business life as compared with that of being employed by the municipality. He replied: "If a man stuck to sobriety, honesty and truthfulness, coupled with determination and industry, he would undoubtedly meet success anywhere."

HESITATION.

"Don't do as my friends are doing" is the caution FIRE COMMISSIONER E. C. HULTMAN uses in illustrating his fire prevention talks. He explains that an intimate friend in the Back Bay recently was awakened at midnight by the odor of smoke. The heated walls confirmed his suspicion of fire. Instead of pulling the alarm, he delayed to telephone COMMISSIONER HULTMAN for advice. "Hultman, I think there's a fire in my house," he gasped. "Oh, what shall I do?" "Call the fire apparatus at once," was the quick reply, "and pray that your delay may not cost you your home."

LISTEN, WORLD!

By ELSIE ROBINSON

NEVER mind how old I am. I'm old enough to know that Age might be mellowed wine if we would have it so.

But there's the rub—we won't have it so. As best, we have only consolation prizes for Age — the heavy dividends are all awarded to Youth. We ourselves determine those prizes and awards. Experience doesn't come to us labeled. Life doesn't put the tags on. Life gives us experience in a mass, as it gives us air in a mass, or water in a mass, or landscape in a mass. It doesn't say, "This is good experience," or, "This is bad experience." It just grinds it out willy-nilly, without explanation or tabulation. Then we humans, in our egotism and ignorance, knowing nothing whatever of the beginnings or the endings of things, proceed to classify it.

"This is happy," say we or, "This is sad." "This is desirable and this is a weariness to the flesh." So we go, setting values on things. Arbitrary values, man made. And always we put the value on the Things of Youth. "Youth is wonderful," we say. "Youth is delightful. Youth holds all the high moments. But age is terrible. Age is weak and sad and colorless and a bore."

Of course, if you've lived at all, you have long since discovered that the valuation we've put on Youth is all wrong. Youth isn't a time of ease and ecstacy. It's a lonely, confused, muddled time. Passion's a pest. Ambition's a gadfly. Pleasure gives us a tummy ache. The years between twenty and forty make wonderful poetry but difficult and often disagreeable living.

Yet, because we have been assured so often that "youth is a wonderful time," we continue to accept that valuation even in the midst of our discouragement and disillusion.

Resign Ourselves.

And for the same reason as we face Age, we prepare for the doldrums. They have told us that Age is a barren bitterness. So we resign ourselves to the barren and bitter. They said that Life holds nothing after Fifty. So we don't even look around to see if it's true or not.

It isn't true. The deflated valuation we've put on Age is as false as the inflated valuation we've set on Youth. Life DOES hold something after Fifty—it holds its rarest distillation of experience. It holds the wine of the years.

Wine—have you ever watched the making of wine? The muddy beginning — the mass of crushed skins and seeds and pulp — the seething, fermenting, bubbling, reeking mass of troubled pulp — the muddy beginning, so like Youth. And then the gradual settling. The scum and refuse rising to the top —making trouble—a nuisance. The purifying and the steadying of the depths—and at last, the clear, strong wine-like liquid ruby with its heart of fire.

Ripened and Mellowed.

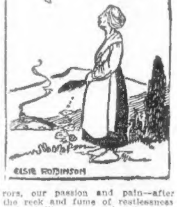
Strange that the sparkling, lucent liquor should have come from that roiling mass. Yet it has, and it still holds in its essence all the virtue of its original elements. The fragrance and savour of the juicy pulp, the virility and tang of skins and seeds and stems, all the wild ardor of the sunny grape is there, clarified of its dross, ripened and mellowed into its full strength and beauty.

After the ferment of Youth — after the seething ferment of our earlier blunders and experiments, the turmoil of our tempers and terrors, our passion and pain—after the reek and fume of restlessness and rebellion—comes the slow settling of maturity. Then the scum and refuse of temperament slowly separates from the depths of our natures.



"THE BEST IS YET TO BE—"
ELSIE ROBINSON

At last life is mellowed and free, no longer roiled by its own revolt. The years have given us their mellow wine. There, in that wine is all that was valuable and vital in the bruised mass of experience — the wilderness and sweetness of ambition and romance, the tang of adventure, the rich bouquet of achievement. But that which made for ferment and muddiness has been eliminated.

That is what age might be if we would have it so. We cling to those old, foolish, arbitrary values which we have set upon experience — we insist that Age is a time of emptiness and bitterness — and that there is nothing worth living for after the high moments of Youth are gone. We refuse to see that those "high moments" were only the bubbles in the wine press and that Age alone knows the good wine. So, like peevish children, we waste the precious gift which might have quenched the soul's deep thirst.
